CAR RAMS INTO GATES OF 10 DOWNING ST, ONE ARRESTED FOR CRIMINAL DAMAGE

One person was arrested on Thursday after a car crashed into the gates of the office-residence of British Prime Minister Rishi Sunak, police said

SUNAK WAS INSIDE BUILDING DURING THE CRASH

Images on social media showed a white passenger car with its boot open slammed into the gates of Downing Street, which is protected with a solid double-barrel black iron gate. The incident happened around 4 pm local time. According to media reports, Sunak was in the building when the car crashed into the front gates and left the premises soon after the incident

Gowda to attend Parl building inauguration

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru/Lucknow

ALTHOUGH 20-odd opposition parties have decided to boycott the inauguration of the Parliament building in New Delhi on May 28, former prime minister and JDS supremo HD Deve Gowda has decided to attend the event, which will also be attended by leaders of some other non-BJP parties, including Shiromani Akali Dal, Yuvajana Shramika Rythu Congress Party of Jagan Mohan Reddy, Telugu Desam Party, AIADMK and Naveen Patnaik-led Biju Janata Dal.

While the attendance of Gowda and other non-BJP leaders goes against the opposition boycott, the inauguration by PM Narendra Modi has received support from Bahujan Samaj Party chief and former Uttar Pradesh chief minister Mayawati, who has termed the stand of boycotting the event as "unfair" and congratulated Modi.

Shah calls for Manipur peace

Says he'll visit soon; Cong raps him for going to Guwahati but not the neighbouring state

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @Guwahati

UNION home minister Amit Shah on Thursday sought to reach out to Manipur that is witnessing a fresh bout of ethnic violence, saying he would soon visit the state for three days and talk to "all brothers and sisters" to re-establish peace and tranquility.

"Some clashes occurred in Manipur due to a court judgment. People belonging to both groups (Meiteis and Kukis) have to first decide on maintaining peace," Shah said in Guwahati. He was speaking at a programme organised to lay the foundation stone for a National Forensic Science University in Assam.

Shah assured that everyone would get justice, adding the perpetrators of the violence would not be spared. He appealed to people to keep their faith and trust in the Narendra Modi government. "We will peacefully resolve the conflict. I will soon visit Manipur for three days and talk to all brothers and sisters for establishing peace," Shah assured.

Earlier in the day, the Congress criticised him for not visiting Manipur. "The Union Home Minister goes all the way to Guwahati today, but does not deem it fit to visit Imphal when Manipur has been burning for 22 days. This is the same Union Home Minister who held 16 rallies and 15 road shows in Karnataka, but cannot find time for the people of Manipur who are suffering a lot due to the ideology and politics of the so-called Double Engine Sarkar," Congress leader Jairam Ramesh tweeted.

At least 71 people lost their lives, over 1,700 houses were burned down and 35,000 displaced in the violence which broke out on May 3 after a Tribal Solidarity March against a proposal to include Meiteis — the state's largest community — in the Scheduled Tribes list.

Amid the violence, prices of essentials have gone through the roof. Cooking gas and petrol are not readily available in the ongoing curfew and black marketeers are having a field day.

Shyamkumar Ayekpak, a resident of Imphal valley, said people were struggling to buy essential items. "Nothing is readily available. As the petrol pumps are closed, people, who require petrol for emergency services, including taking patients to a hospital, are forced to buy it at ₹250 a litre from the black market," Ayekpak said.

Saroj Singh, another resident, said the prices of most rice varieties have shot up by 50%. "As shops are closed, people are not getting anything. They have been forced to buy essentials from the black market," Singh said.

Subir Das, a man from Assam who is serving as the manager of a hotel in Imphal, said, the price of every single item has shot up. "A plate of broiler egg now costs ₹260-300. Before the violence, it was ₹200. The price of broiler chicken (whole) is up from ₹200 a kg to ₹300 a kg. Potato was ₹20 a kg. It is now ₹40 a kg. Onion has gone up from ₹30 a kg to ₹50-60 a kg," Das said.

LPG refill costs ₹2,000, a litre of petrol ₹250

In the violence-hit Manipur, the price of an LPG cylinder is anything beyond ₹2,000 while petrol costs ₹250 a litre on the black market. The prices of other essential items like potato, onion and other vegetables, too, have gone up manifold

24 MLAs to take oath as ministers tomorrow, tentative list ready

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @Bengaluru

TWENTY-FOUR more MLAs will take oath as ministers in Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's cabinet at a swearing-in ceremony to be held at Raj Bhavan on Saturday at 11.45 am. Karnataka governor Thaawar Chand Gehlot will administer the oath to the new ministers and his office has already been approached, CMO sources confirmed to TNIE.

Siddaramaiah, Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar and eight Cabinet-ranked ministers took oath at Kanteerava Stadium on May 20, leaving vacancies for 24 more to be added in the 34-member strong Council of Ministers. There is a guideline that the Council of Ministers should not exceed 15% of the total number of MLAs in the 224-member Assembly.

The distribution of portfolios is likely to be done soon after the swear-in ceremony. No minister will get more than one portfolio, while the rest of them will be with the Chief Minister, according to sources privy to the meetings in New Delhi on Thursday.

As pressure mounted on the Congress party high command with over 40 aspirants lobbying at various levels at the national capital, it was left with no other option than filling up all vacancies. Siddaramaiah and Shivakumar landed in New Delhi on Wednesday and held several rounds of talks with AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge and AICC general secretaries Randeep Singh Surjewala and KC Venugopal to finalise the names. Tentative lists have been drawn, subject to change on Friday.

On Thursday night, they huddled in the party's war room and arrived at a decision to pick the 24 MLAs. Siddaramaiah and Shivakumar are expected to meet former AICC presidents Rahul Gandhi and Sonia Gandhi on Friday.

In the meetings on Thursday, Shivakumar was against those who had not contributed to the party during Rahul Gandhi's Bharat Jodo Yatra. However, this did go down well with the party high command, and in the interest of the party — especially with the 2024 LS polls — a decision was taken to tentatively shortlist the names (see box on P4), according to sources. P4

Pilot as PCC chief, Jat DyCM is Raj formula

SHAHID FARIDI @ New Delhi

THE Congress high command has reportedly given shape to a plan that allows warring Ashok Gehlot and Sachin Pilot in Rajasthan to bury the hatchet in view of the forthcoming Assembly elections.

The plan entails giving the post of Pradesh Congress Committee (PCC) president to Pilot. The decision has been conveyed to Chief Minister Gehlot.

The CM is said to have expressed some unease. The current PCC chief, Govind Singh Dotasra, is a Jat. Gehlot says Dotasra's presence as PCC chief will draw the Jats towards the Congress because the BJP recently removed Satish Poonia, also a Jat, as its state president. If Dotasra too goes, the Congress may fail to tap the Jat anger with the BJP, Gehlot is said to have reasoned.

Congress insiders say the party has told Gehlot he can appoint a Jat as the state's deputy CM to take care of the community's sentiments. The party has given Gehlot a free hand to choose a Jat leader as his deputy. Dotasra, a Gehlot loyalist, is the front-runner for the post.

According to sources, Pilot, who has been on the warpath against Gehlot, has agreed to bury the hatchet and accept the post of PCC chief until the upcoming Assembly elections.

Rajasthan's elections are due in December, and the Congress central leadership is keen to resolve the differences between its two top leaders in the state. Party leaders feel like in Karnataka, where Congress managed to win the election by bringing the two top leaders Siddaramaiah and D K Shivakumar together, it is important to get Gehlot and Pilot on the same page to make a serious bid to retain power in Rajasthan.

Sources said talks with both leaders have been going on for some time, and the groundwork for an agreement has been done. Party president Mallikarjun Kharge will soon meet the two leaders after which the peace formula will be announced.

Among Pilot's demands is compensation for students affected by a paper leak and restructuring of the Rajasthan Public Service Commission.

Panel on Raje graft

As sought by Pilot, panel is likely to be set up to probe charges of alleged corruption by the previous Vasundhara Raje government of the BJP

Moral policing: Group threatens boy, girl

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Chikkaballapur

A girl and a boy from different faiths were reportedly threatened by a group of youths at a chat centre in the city on Wednesday evening. The video of the moral policing incident has gone viral.

Chikkaballapur Superintendent of Police DL Nagesh told The New Indian Express that a case has been registered after the girl filed a complaint. The police have launched an inquiry and are examining the CCTV footage to identify the culprits.

Meanwhile, sources said the girl and the boy, who were classmates, were having snacks at the chat centre when the group barged in and threatened them with dire consequences. They warned the boy to keep away from the girl.

The sources said that an argument broke out between the youths and the girl when she and her friend came out of the chat centre. They attempted to assault the boy for ignoring their warning.

Nagesh said the preliminary investigation revealed that the boy is from Siddlaghatta and pursuing his studies in Chikkaballapur.

The girl, who was his classmate, discontinued her studies and is now working in Bengaluru.

MiG-29K lands aboard INS Vikrant at night

MAYANK SINGH @New Delhi

IN its efforts to make the country's indigenous aircraft carrier INS Vikrant fully operational, the Indian Navy crossed another milestone by undertaking maiden night landing of MiG-29K onboard the carrier. "This challenging night landing trial demonstrates the resolve, skill and professionalism of the Vikrant crew and the naval pilots" said the Indian Navy on Thursday.

Sources said the whole process of establishing the compatibility between the aircraft and the ship along with the night landing within one year makes it a significant achievement.

The INS Vikrant, the first indigenous aircraft carrier and the most complex warship ever built in the country by the Cochin Shipyard Ltd, was commissioned into the Indian Navy on September last year.

The carrier is currently undergoing air certification and flight integration trials with rotary wing and fixed-wing aircraft for reaching the combat-ready state at the earliest.

The maiden day landing of MiG-29K and the indigenous LCA (Navy) was achieved on February 6, 23. Since then, day-and-night landing trials of all helicopters of the Navy have progressed. This night landing on Wednesday is in continuation with the current impetus on the aviation trials.

"This accomplishment within three months of maiden day landing demonstrates the resolve, skill and professionalism of the Navy, Vikrant crew and Naval pilots," said sources.

Ch’ghatta Metro work now on track

Both land issues related to depot sorted; Plot adjacent to station will be Purple Line terminus

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

Work going on at Namma Metro’s Challaghatta depot near Kengeri | EXPRESS

CHALLAGHATTA depot, coming up beyond Kengeri, is set to play a crucial role in the operations of Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL) when completed. For, a considerable chunk of the trains on the Purple Line are presently stabled at Baiyappanahalli Metro depot, will be shifted here when it is completed. Baiyappanahalli depot will then focus on stabling trains catering to Outer Ring Road and Airport Lines.

With two contentious land issues sorted out, one recently, work is now chugging along steadily on the Rs 499.41-crore depot cum workshop, which forms part of Metro’s Reach-2 Phase-II extension. On Tuesday, land surveyors from the Railways visited the depot to take stock of the land position there.

General Manager, land acquisition, BMRCL, M S Channappagoudar told TNIE that a total of 45 acres had been acquired for building Challaghatta depot as well as the Metro station. “There was an issue with 1,612 square metres of land belonging to the Railways. BMRCL wanted only this portion of land along the Bengaluru-Mysuru railway line to construct a test track for the depot. Railways was willing to give us the land but they wanted us to also acquire 960 sqm of land attached to it. They felt that access to this portion would be lost once we acquire 1,612 sqm. A fortnight ago, we agreed to acquire the extra space too,” he said.

The other land issue pertained to five acres belonging to a farmer, located in the middle of the depot. “BDA had acquired his land but he filed a writ petition as he was not satisfied with the compensation offered, which is 40% of developed land. The court dismissed it and he filed a writ appeal in the High Court. There has been no stay given by the court on acquiring the land. We have discussed with him and regardless of the verdict, he has agreed to hand over his property to BMRCL and settle for the cash compensation, which is double the land value,” Channappagoudar said.

TNIE visited the depot, located adjacent to Challaghatta Metro Station, which will soon become the terminus of the Purple Line. The contract for constructing the depot has been awarded to a joint venture between Rail Infrastructure Technical and Engineering Services (RITES) and Power Mech Projects Limited on November 22, 2022, with a two-year completion deadline.

A source said, “The earth work and storm water drain work have commenced. Work on the road for the underpass too has begun.”

As part of the project, an underpass will be constructed to connect with BDA’s Nadaprabhu Kempegowda Layout. “From the depot, it is walkable distance to Challagahatta Metro Station for the future residents of the layout,” he explained.

Madiwala Lake is spread across 252 acres | S SHIVASHANKAR

Dead fish in scenic Madiwala Lake shock walkers

PURAN CHOUDHARY @Bengaluru

THE monsoon season has just started and already incidents of fish kills have been reported from at least seven lakes across the city. The latest being Madiwala Lake, which falls under the Karnataka Forest Department. On Thursday, morning walkers reported more than 200 dead fish floating in the 252-acre lake.

This has led to lake experts questioning the responsibility of various departments. “Early in the morning, I saw dead fish floating on the water. There is major negligence on the part of the BBMP on treating the sewage which is flowing into the lake,” Naveen, a lake activist, said.

It is also said that a portion of the wall of a stormwater drain broke leading to a large amount of sewage entering the lake and reducing the oxygen level for fish to survive.

A forest official said, “Last night (Wednesday), there was heavy downpour in the area, which led to storm water entering the lake.”

V Ram Prasad, co-founder of Friends of Lakes, asked why tenders for fish rearing were even approved when the water quality is so poor? He also pointed out that Madiwala Lake is an important water body that is home to migratory birds which are bound to get affected due to fish kills. “There can be many environmental reasons for fish dying, but government bodies, especially the Department of Fisheries, should be held accountable,” he added.

KSPCB REPORT

In its latest report, the Karnataka State Pollution Control Board (KSPCB) revealed that Madiwala Lake was categorized four times under the ‘E’ category and eight times under ‘D’ category between April 2022 and March 2023.

According to KSPCB rules, if a lake is classified as D category, then only the propagation of wildlife and fisheries can take place. If the lake is graded as E category, it is qualified for only industrial cooling, irrigation and controlled waste disposal. Yet Madiwala Lake was given the tender for fish rearing. The KSPCB report also mentioned that 68 lakes in the city were graded ‘D’ out of the 105 lakes and 28 in ‘E’ in March 2023.

Introduce free bus ride for women soon: Federation

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

WITH the new Congress government yet to implement its guarantee of free bus ride, many instances of women passengers arguing with conductors of Bengaluru Metropolitan Transport Corporation (BMTC) and KSRTC buses for the facility have been reported in Bengaluru and other parts of the state.

Videos of women passengers arguing with bus conductors for free rides have gone viral. Bus conductors are facing a tough time in convincing women passengers that the guarantee is yet to be implemented by the state government.

With this being the situation, AITUC-affiliated Karnataka State Road Transport Corporation Staff and Workers’ Federation has urged Chief Minister Siddaramaiah to implement the scheme at the earliest.

“People impressed by the Congress party’s election manifesto have given it a clear mandate. While we know that it is difficult for any new government to implement all its promises immediately, it is imperative that some are implemented without any delay. We have received complaints that many women passengers across the state are getting into arguments with conductors demanding that they be allowed to travel without bus fares,” stated Vijaya Bhaskar DA, general secretary, KSRTC Staff and Workers’ Federation, in a letter to Siddaramaiah on May 24.

Bhaskar said that the new government should take steps to avoid the inconvenience being faced by bus conductors and drivers.

BBMP finalises Indira Canteen breakfast menu

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

A DAY after the new government decided to inject fresh life into Indira Canteens, the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) has rustled up a breakfast menu, focusing on health and quantity.

According to Special Commissioner (Health) Dr KV Thrilok Chandra, the menu will be changed daily and delicacies like Upma, Kesari Bath, Bisibele Bath, Pongal and Idlis among other items will be served for breakfast.

The quantity of food, details of cost and tender approval from the BBMP among other details will be sent to the government. The programme will be launched at the earliest, Thrilok Chandra said.

The commissioner also held a virtual meeting with officials on Wednesday night and stated that out of 175 Indira Canteens, 163 were operational. He confirmed that six public canteens at RR Nagar zone and three in South zone were not operational and directed officials, including Zonal Commissioners and health officials, to give a report on the existing conditions of Indira Canteens.

ASHA workers not paid for 4 months

NAMRATA SINDWANI @Bengaluru

ACCREDITED Social Health Activist (ASHA) workers across Karnataka are facing it hard to run their homes as they have not received their salaries for the past three-four months.

The issue was highlighted by the Karnataka State Asha Workers’ Association, affiliated with the All India United Trade Union Centre (AIUTUC), here on Thursday. ASHAs were on the frontline of the battle against Covid, and they are now continuing to work even in adverse weather conditions despite not getting paid, the association said.

For a ASHA worker at Vibhutipura PHC, the non-payment of salary has crippled her life. “Since four months, my salary has not been credited. My daughter’s school is about to begin and I have not yet paid her school fees or bought books and other items. We barely manage to pay the house rent and ration costs only with my husband’s income,” she said.

K Somasekhar Yadagiri, state president of the association, appealed to Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Deputy CM DK Shivakumar to immediately look into the matter and release the salaries. “For the past 45 days, I have been requesting officials to release the salary of ASHA workers. But every time they give false promises of releasing it within a week.”

ASHA workers get a fixed salary of Rs 5,000, which was increased by Rs 1,000 in the 2023 state budget of the previous Bommai government.

However, Prabhu Gowda, deputy director, ASHA Programme, disagreed with the association, claiming that the salary was not credited only for March and April. “With the Model Code of Conduct (MCC) coming into force on March 29, the Election Commission (EC) directed withholding the salary. According to procedure, a new government order should be issued mentioning the revised Rs 6,000 salary,” he said adding that hence, the salary was not given for two months.

Since the elections are over, the department has issued the new order and the salary will be released soon, he added.

Retaining wall to come up along SWDs in KR Puram

Portion of a house being demolished in KR Puram

Bengaluru: To prevent future encroachments, a retaining wall will come up along the stormwater drain network at Horamavu village in KR Puram, as soon as the encroachment removal drive is completed. Once the encroachments are demolished, there will be no flooding in Hoysala Nagar and surrounding areas like last year, as the drain network will be connected to Horamavu Lake, BBMP officials claimed. Syed Rehman, executive engineer (KR Puram), said, “The drive will be intensified and obstructions removed at the earliest, to ensure the area does not flood in case of heavy rain,” he added. To end any confusion, re-marking was done by land surveyors at some places, as per the village map of the revenue department. Once the drive is over, a retaining wall will be built along the stormwater drain to prevent any future encroachments, the official confirmed. Vinay Kumar, assistant executive engineer, KR Puram sub-division, said, “We have no role to play. The markings are done by land surveyors and it is the decision of the Storm Water Drain department.” — Mohammed Yacoob

RTI activist alleges irregularities in civic body’s skywalk project

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

AN RTI activist filed a complaint with the Lokayukta, alleging that Rs 15.59 crore was released by officials of the BBMP Traffic Engineering Cell (TEC), even before the completion of 14 skywalks.

RTI activist Sudarshan, in his complaint, stated that BBMP had approved construction of 14 skywalks across the city, at an estimated cost of Rs 53.52 crore. “Work on seven skywalks under Job code 304-22-000001 was approved on June 22, 2020, while seven more skywalks were approved under job code 304-22-000002 on June 5, 2021. The estimated cost of both job codes is worth Rs 53.52 crore, and a contractor bagged both tenders to complete the works for Rs 41.84 crore,” he said.

The activist alleged that the contractor violated tender conditions by not completing works within the stipulated time. “The contractor has also not provided facilities that help the aged and persons with physical disabilities, in using the skywalks. Also, the BMMP TEC released Rs 15.59 crore even before the works are completed,” Sudarshan alleged, adding that officials are about to release another Rs 5 crore.

BBMP officials refuted the allegations, stating that out of 14 skywalks, 12 are in progress, and of those, three skywalks at Pantharapalya, NR Colony and Govindaraja Nagar are completed. “The RTI activist is not a technical expert and he may be doing this for publicity. The Palike is transparent and has released only part payment for 12 skywalks, and is ready to face any probe,” an official from the TEC said.

PETER VIDAL

26th May: Well, Friday is here again. Did you know that today is special to the planet Venus? Perhaps you didn’t. The significance of this simple fact is that children born today are said to be exceptionally charming. I’m sure that doesn’t hold for all of them, but it’s certainly a big help for many!

ARIES
(Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
You have been treading on your partner’s toes right, left and centre. Today’s splendid Moon reveals that you can now talk to everyone, make up, forgive and forget. The onus, though, is on you more than anyone else. Take the lead whenever you see that peace is needed.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 - May 21)
Your astrological cycles bring new beginnings of a sort every month. Today’s particular pattern suggests fresh starts at home, but it seems as if there is not enough time to make best use of certain helpful developments. Actually, you may be saved a great deal of hassle as a result!

GEMINI
(May 22 - June 21)
The Moon is aligned with your sign today, so take advantage of all pleasant and helpful developments. The one negative planetary influence will encourage you to go for a financial risk - the best bets are connected to boats, the seaside, the arts or fashion.

CANCER
(June 22 - July 23)
You can’t live in the past for ever, and you simply have to cut out a lot of dead wood, but just how you do it is another matter. You may search your imagination for the right answers, but realise that the best may be the most unusual - a break with tradition perhaps?

LEO
(July 24 - Aug. 23)
Courage! You have everything to gain and nothing to lose by jumping in at the deep end. In fact, other people will probably lend you a helping hand, though in ways that you at first fail to recognise. Oh, and even the occasional mistake will help you sharpen up your act.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
One thing it is possible to say at the moment is that you have a choice, that somehow home or family life must be the inspiration for your ideas, but that work or public life is most emotionally fulfilling. The precise situation will become clearer by next week.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
You may have seen enough and done enough for now, and you could well feel that it’s time to let matters slide. And why not? It’s a fine moment to attend to yourself and your own very worthwhile fantasies. Dream a little. You never know - you might come up with a plan for the future!

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
The chance of a financial choice is now looking pretty powerful, although it also looks as if you will make a meal out of options which are in fact seriously trivial. In the long run it may not matter which way you jump. What really counts is your purity of heart!

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
You have been ruled by your head rather than your heart. However, deeper feelings come into play today, perhaps prompted by a close encounter of the intense and emotional kind. You’ll need to have all your wits about you if you’re to figure out what someone else is really up to.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Venus now reviews its dramatic relationship with Jupiter, but the results are likely to be as clear as mud! The more you think you know your feelings, the further you are likely to drift from reality. This is fine if you are happy to abandon your responsibilities.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
It doesn’t matter whether you start the day racked by tension or completely laid back. Whatever your individual starting point, the Moon will lead you to greater relaxation, so please don’t take on additional burdens. All you have to do is learn how to say ‘no’.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
It’s time to think. By that I don’t mean that you should escape into your fantasies and avoid real life. I mean that you should face the facts, take decisions and be totally clear with other people about your intentions. That’s no less than partners deserve.

Incharge DG&IGP Alok Mohan, during his maiden visit to the Bengaluru police commissioner's office on Thursday, said there would be zero-tolerance towards rowdyism and organised crime in Bengaluru. "The main focus is to make the city drug-free. Police personnel will be trained to investigate technical crimes."

After state win, now local battles brew for Cong

SEC awaiting decisions in various courts

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @Bengaluru

CONGRESS has conquered Karnataka and now, if everything goes well, the party will be facing the onerous tasks of battling out the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP), and zilla and taluk panchayat elections, which are likely to be held before the Lok Sabha elections in 2024.

To undertake the elections, the state election commission for many months has been awaiting the decisions pending in various courts including the Supreme Court regarding BBMP and zilla panchayat polls. The BBMP Council term ended in September 2020. It has been over four months that Bengaluru does not have any elected urban local body.

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah has already emphasised that the people have a lot of expectations from the new government. The new dispensation has waded into testing waters after the death of a woman in the KR Circle submerged underpass.

The previous BJP government had completed the delimitation process for all 243 wards amid strong pushback from Congress. Now, with the government likely to take up the delimitation process, the elections might be deferred.

Congress sources said that the BBMP polls would not be delayed because as an opposition they had demanded elections. "It is a challenge as the BJP has won 16 of the 28 seats in Bengaluru," said a Congress leader.

On the other hand, elections to 31 zilla panchayats and 238 taluk panchayats are also pending. They were supposed to be held two and a half years ago. For various reasons, the previous BJP government had withdrawn powers to draw delimitation by the state election commission. The pandemic also impaired the process.

With the delimitation and reservation process concluded recently, Congress might go for a re-exercise of both delimitation and reservation, which could become another challenge for them.

State Election Commission Commissioner Basavaraj told TNIE that they are prepared and keen to hold elections. "We have been exploring all options to hold elections for a long time. But, the ball is in the government's court to finish the reservation process. Then, we can pursue the court cases," he said, adding that he hopes, if everything plays out as per plan, the elections could be held in the next few months.

A delegation of newly-elected Congress MLAs from Belagavi, led by KPCC working president Satish Jarkiholi, called on AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge at his residence in New Delhi on Thursday | EXPRESS

Shettar may get plan panel dy chief post

Sources in the CMO shared a tentative list of the probables with TNIE (see box below), which is likely to be changed on Friday.

Athani MLA Laxman Savadi, who joined Congress from BJP, senior Congress leader BK Hariprasad, MLC NS Boseraju and Dharwad MLA Vinay Kulkarni were not included in one of the lists, but appeared on another. They are likely to be included when Siddaramaiah and Shivakumar meet the Gandhis on Friday. Leaders Ajay Singh, Nagendra, Dinesh Gundu Rao, Raghavendra Hitnal, MP Narendraswamy had also lobbied intensely, but their names are not on the the lists.

Former CM Jagadish Shettar is likely to be appointed as deputy chairman of the State Planning Commission, sources said. They said legislators in Bengaluru who miss the cabinet berths will be appointed to boards and corporations, including the coveted BDA.

It is learnt that the high command tried to ensure each Lok Sabha seat has a minister besides the caste equation by offering one berth for four MLAs from a community, and this criterion applied to Lingayats (39 won), Vokkaligas (21), SC (22), ST (15), Kurubas (9), Muslims (9).

Two senior leaders, one from Coastal Karnataka and another from Tumakuru, who refused the Speaker's post, are unlikely to be inducted as ministers.

TENTATIVE LIST OF MINISTERS

Eshwar Khandre (Bhalki), Laxmi Hebbalkar (Belagavi rural), Shivananda Patil (Basavana Bagewadi), Sharanabasappa Gouda Darshanapur (Shahapura), Basavaraj Rayareddy (Yalaburagi), Dr HC Mahadevappa (T Narasipura), K Venkatesh (Periyapatna), S S Mallikarjun (Davanagere North), Byrati Suresh (Hebbal), Krishna Byregowda (Bytarayanapura), Rahim Khan (Bidar), C Puttarangashetty (Chamarajanagar), Dr M C Sudhakar (Chintamani), M Krishnappa (Vijaynagar), D Sudhakar (Hiriyuru), H K Patil (Gadag), N Cheluvarayaswamy (Nagamangala), K N Rajanna (Madhugiri), Santhosh Lad (Kalaghatagi), Madhu Bangarappa (Soraba), Mankala Vaidya (Bhatkal), Shivaraj Tangadagi (Kanakagiri), RB Thimmapur (Mudhol), Rudrappa Lamani (Haveri) and Dr Sharanaprakash Patil (Sedam)

Seniors in or out? Young MLAs track cabinet talks

K SHIVA KUMAR @Mysuru

AS the Congress high command, CM Siddaramaiah, Deputy CM DK Shivakumar, and AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge finalised the list of ministers for cabinet expansion, MLAs who have won three to four times and new faces are closely tracking the developments.

The second-rung leaders are confident that the party will accommodate them if the seniors are not inducted as many including Jains, Uppara, and other backward communities are eyeing cabinet berths.

If Shivakumar blocks the entry of seniors like K Venkatesh, HC Mahadevappa, Krishna Byre Gowda, and Dinesh Gundu Rao, who were vocal against him, it would pave the way for second-rung leaders. But sources said that Siddaramaiah may push to induct his close associates Mahadevappa, Venkatesh, Byre Gowda, KN Rajanna, Basavaraj Rayareddy, and Gundu Rao. It is also learned that Siddaramaiah even said that he doesn't want to be a symbolic chief minister, and insisted that veterans like Mahadevappa and Venkatesh, who had followed him from JDS, are in his cabinet. He is also firm on giving equal representation to all sections to keep them satisfied before the Lok Sabha elections. Dalits leaders have also urged Kharge and Siddaramaiah to give eight ministries to SC/STs.

Congress MLA SN Narayanaswamy said that the Congress high command is aware that the right community had no representation in the BJP government. He recalled there were over four ministers from the community in the SM Krishna and previous Congress governments. He hopes that he is given a berth from Mandya as he has won the Legislative Council polls, and had worked with N Chaluvarayaswamy to breach the JDS fortress.

The ST community has also sought three berths and the Muslims three more.

Cong may use same ammunition for LS polls

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @Bengaluru

DURING its campaign in the run-up to the Assembly elections, Congress had consistently hammered on corruption in the BJP government, with its PayCM campaign on the allegations of 40 per cent commission, and communal politics. The campaign plank backed by its five guarantees, which recently received cabinet approval, gave massive benefits to Congress, and the Grand Old Party is planning to stick to those lines for the upcoming 2024 Lok Sabha polls after their thumping victory in Karnataka.

Hinting that Congress might recharge and not change their ammunition, minister Priyank Kharge said that the Congress government led by Chief Minister Siddaramaiah will review the policies of the previous BJP dispensation including anti-cow slaughter and anti-conversion bills, and will not hesitate to take action against Bajrang Dal and RSS.

Meanwhile, some ministers in the nascent government, especially MB Patil have stated that the government will investigate all the alleged scams perpetrated by the earlier regime, which has been dubbed as the sixth guarantee.

Apparently, the party has decided that their stance would not change on the corruption issue ahead of the Lok Sabha polls.

Sources said that strategists have also worked out a plan to win 15-18 of 28 Lok Sabha seats as the party at present has only one MP from Karnataka. However, political pundits believe that the results would depend on unity among leaders and how effectively the guarantees are implemented.

In the 2019 Lok Sabha polls, BJP had won 25 of 27 seats it contested in Karnataka with a vote share of 51.75 per cent, followed by Congress 1 (32.11 per cent vote share) and JDS 1 (9.74 per cent). In Mandya, Sumalatha Ambareesh won as an independent backed by BJP. Congress had contested 21 seats and left seven for JDS as they were coalition partners in HD Kumaraswamy-led government.

JDS Vokkaliga vote up for grabs, BJP gains

BANSY KALAPPA @Bengaluru

THE Vokkaliga vote, which was once cornered by the JDS, is drifting away. This election has shown that a portion of it has gone to the Congress, but the big story is that the Vokkaliga vote has significantly gone to the BJP.

"The JDS Vokkaliga vote is melting. If we can get about 15 per cent of that vote, we can take our vote share beyond 50 per cent," said former DyCM and Malleswaram MLA Dr CN Ashwath Narayan. He said that Vokkaliga support for the JDS is sliding, but not for the BJP, which has gained Vokkaliga votes. The JDS vote share of about 15 per cent is now available. "If we work effectively, we boost our vote share to an unassailable 50 per cent," he said.

TNIE checked the statistics, and vote share numbers for the BJP showed a huge jump in 2023, compared to votes polled in 2018 in the Vokkaliga heartland of Old Mysuru. For example, in Mandya district, votes jumped from 85,714 to 1,79,469. Constituency-wise, the biggest jump has been in Maddur, where votes shot up from 4,159 to 28,996 -- a seven-fold hike. Srirangapatna saw a four-fold increase – from 11,326 to 42,306. In KR Pete, votes shot up from 9,819 to 38,151 -- again a four-fold leap. As a rule, in election after election in Mandya, the BJP would lose its deposit, and there was no surprise in that.

These figures are not accidental. In CM Siddaramaiah's turf of Varuna, BJP votes nearly doubled, from 37,819 to 73,653. In Tumakuru's Madhugiri, BJP's votes went up from 2,911 to 15,612 -- a five-fold increase. In Koratgere, where Parameshwara contested, BJP's votes doubled to 24,091.

Erstwhile Bangalore Rural district saw a similar trend. In Ramanagara, BJP's votes trebled from 4,871 to 12,912; Doddaballapur showed a three-fold increase, from 27,612 to 85144; in Magadi, votes went up five-fold, from 4,419 to 20197 votes.

Ashwath Narayan's analysis was supported by former BJP MLC Ashwath Narayana Gowda, who said, "Inadvertently, the increase in BJP's Vokkaliga vote in many parts helped the Congress, but it is not a serious problem, because in the long run, we will gain as a party in these areas." The BJP is seriously considering bringing in a Vokkaliga leader as party president or opposition leader, and and the names of Ashwath Narayan, Shobha Karandlaje and R Ashoka are doing the rounds. CT Ravi's name kept popping up for the party president's post ever since he lost his assembly seat.

Cong govt's fate hangs on LS poll results: HDK

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

RESOLVING to strengthen JDS in the coming days, former chief minister HD Kumaraswamy said that the future of the Congress government depends on the result of the Lok Sabha elections next year.

Speaking at the introspective meeting following the poor performance of JDS in the Assembly elections, Kumaraswamy stressed that JDS was unable to spend massive amounts like Congress and BJP, which was one of the main reasons for losing the elections. He also apologised to the candidates who were defeated for not providing financial assistance to them at the last minute while stating that both national parties spent huge money to win the polls.

Attacking the Congress government, the former chief minister alleged that Congress launched a propaganda campaign against JDS, instigating a community against the party. "Congress has won 135 seats but it appears that there is a trust deficit in the government. The future of this government depends on the results of the Lok Sabha polls. The government may continue or not. Anything can happen," Kumaraswamy said, asking the party workers to hit the streets and protest with the people against the government if it fails to implement the five guarantee which were promised.

Meanwhile, he pulled up the district presidents of the party for not organising and strengthening the party at the district levels. He also expressed displeasure for failing to organise the party effectively in Bengaluru city. He pointed out some candidates and said, "You beg for the ticket to contest. Once the ticket is given, you get into match-fixing to help other parties." He also directed the state party president CM Ibrahim, who was on stage, to appoint four presidents for four divisions of Bengaluru Urban district.

In another development, Nikhil Kumaraswamy, who lost from Ramanagara constituency, resigned from the post of president of the state youth wing of JDS.

Cong politics of vengeance, says Ashwath

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru/Hubballi

WHILE the state government has filed an FIR against Malleswaram MLA and former deputy chief minister Dr CN Ashwath Narayan for his "finish off Siddaramaiah just like Uri Gowda and Nanje Gowda finished off Tipu Sultan'' remark, Narayan said the Congress is indulging in politics of vengeance.

"With a huge mandate, Congress should focus on development of the state instead of filing FIR four months after my remark," he said.

He clarified that his remarks were a way of telling the voters to halt Siddaramaiah's political career, and recalled that he had regretted the statement soon after making it.

Siddaramaiah's supporters, however, blasted Narayan on social media. Asked about his statement in Ramanagara, which the Congress alleged had provoked MP DK Suresh, he said Suresh came "against me" on stage in Ramanagara. "It was an issue of some workers not cooperating for the official function consistently, and I was requesting them to come and participate," he said.

Congress govt going in reverse gear: Bommai

Mocking the Congress government for going in "reverse gear", former chief minister Basavaraj Bommai said on Thursday that the government has already indulged in vendetta politics.

"Everyone knows Congress' appeasement politics. If their actions are against the interests of the people, we will fight them legally and politically. Their statement that they will change everything implemented by the previous government shows their arrogance," he said, adding that the government has made it clear that it will reverse the pro-people laws brought in by the BJP government.

Speaking to the media in Shiggaon, Bommai said the party is working actively to win 25 seats in the upcoming Lok Sabha elections and make Narendra Modi prime minister again.

Stop all works, CM writes to chief secretary

ENS @Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah has written to the Chief Secretary to stop all works being implemented by different departments and recommence them only after a probe is conducted.

In his letter, the CM stated that there was misappropriation of funds and also tenders were floated without prior approval during the previous regime. During the previous government, various corporations, including Karnataka Neeravari Nigam Limited, Cauvery Neeravari Nigam Ltd along with Power, Public Works department as well as RDPR had called for tenders without allocating funds, he said. Though there were fund crunch and land acquisition issues, tenders were floated for various works by these departments, he added. Also, Rs 20,000 crore was needed for the same and tenders were called violating norms, he said.

SPEAKER'S POST WON'T HAMPER MY WORK FOR PEOPLE: KHADER

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Mangaluru

NEWLY-appointed Assembly Speaker UT Khader, after being elected to the prestigious position, visited Mangaluru for the first time on Thursday.

He assured that as an MLA he will continue to work for the people of his constituency which will not be impeded by his position as the Speaker.

Speaking to media persons, Khader said he will ensure that business in Assembly is transacted peacefully without any hatred among legislators. "There are many first-time MLAs. I will try to give them more opportunities to express themselves and raise the issues of people. We are also organising a three-day training camp for the newly-elected MLAs where they will be briefed about Assembly proceedings and their rights and duties," he said.

Asked if his role as the Speaker would limit his functions as an MLAs which his supporters are fearing, Khader said he will make time for the people of his constituency and resolve their grievances. "I will be available for the people and work for the development of my constituency while maintaining the dignity of the office of the Speaker. I hope my supporters will understand and cooperate," he said. He mollified his supporters, who were unhappy that he was not given a ministerial berth, and said, "The Speaker is much bigger than a minister. A minister will be limited to one particular ministry, but all ministries come under the Speaker."

Khader said he was picked as the Speaker by the Congress high command and AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge. "Although I am much junior, I have enough experience in politics with many things to learn," he said.

State sets aside funds to avoid med shortage

Tender process delayed for 3-4 months

NAMRATA SINDWANI @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka health department has set aside Rs 321 crore to ensure that medical institutions do not face any shortage of medicines/equipment since the annual tender process for procuring stock has been delayed by 3-4 months.

The annual tender is one of the largest tenders announced by the health department every year. It includes supply of medicines, medical devices, surgicals, sutures, antidotes, blood products and contraceptives, among other items.

The order for initiating this process for 2023-24 was given in December 2022. Principal secretary, health and family welfare, Anil Kumar TK said it was only in March the tender was presented to the pre-tender scrutiny committee for approval, by when Karnataka was in election mode as the Model Code of Conduct came into force, delaying the entire process which takes 45-60 days to complete, and another 60 dates to supply. It is expected to end by July-August.

All institutions are directed to procure required medicines locally, till the tender process is completed. Hence, funds amounting to Rs 321 crore has been pooled in to ensure the state does not face a shortage like it did last year.

Several PHCs had complained of not having basic medicines, surgical gloves and sutures at the time.

So far, no medical institutions are facing any issues regarding medicine shortage. Dr Ramesh Krishna, director cum dean, Bangalore Medical College and Research Institute said, "Currently, we have sufficient stock of medicines and necessary equipment. We plan to hold meetings with the health department to get approval regarding stock requirements and procure them later."

Alok Mohan talks tough, says will not tolerate rowdyism

INCHARGE DG&IGP Alok Mohan, during his maiden visit to the city police commissioner's office on Thursday, said there would be zero-tolerance towards rowdyism and organised crime in Bengaluru.

"The main focus is to make the city free from drugs. All policemen will have to be physically and mentally fit. Police personnel will be trained to investigate technical crimes. Stringent action will be taken against policemen joining hands with criminals."

DCPs must visit at least one police station in a day in their jurisdiction, and all ACPs must compulsorily visit all police stations in sub-divisions, which will be personally monitored, Mohan said.

Further, he said importance is to be given towards safety of women and children, besides traffic management.

Man chased for a km, killed over suspected illicit affair

BENGALURU: A man was chased for almost a kilometer before being murdered over a suspected illicit affair in Vishwanathapura. The victim, Pradeep (27), was reportedly having an affair with the accused's wife. The husband, Venkatesh, had approached the police to summon him and warn him to discontinue his relationship. Since the victim continued to pursue the woman despite it, Venkatesh and his friend, Koli Nagesh, called the victim in the pretext of talking to him, attacked him with weapons, while he started to run. After chasing him, they tied his limbs and killed him.

Security supervisor arrested for outraging modesty of colleague

PRAVEEN KUMAR @ Bengaluru

A 30-year-old security supervisor of a reputed eye care device manufacturing firm is accused of outraging the modesty of a colleague with whom he was allegedly in relationship briefly. The woman, who had separated from her husband over a domestic dispute had shared her plights with the accused, Manohar, a resident of 4th main road in Amruthanagar, who then assured to marry her. The victim's mother, on finding about their relationship, convinced her to get back with her husband.

After the woman returned to her husband, the accused made desperate attempts to continue the relationship. When she refused, he threatened to upload her nude pictures on social media if she did not comply. On sunday, the 27-year-old victim, a resident of Manjunathnagar in Rajajinagar, found that he uploaded her obscene picture as his profile picture on WhatsApp.

"The victim, along with her mother, went to the accused's house on Monday to request him to remove the display picture, following which he allegedly abused the victim, attacked her with a key and even kicked her. The women then approached us and filed the complaint," said an officer part of investigations.

The police have recorded the statements of the victim and her mother and sent his mobile phone to FSL for examination.

Amruthahalli police registered a case and arrested the accused and remanded him to judicial custody. Further investigations are on.

Special court rejects plea by BoB manager in corruption case

YATHIRAJU @ Bengaluru

THE Special Court for CBI cases declined to discharge a branch manager of Bank of Baroda (BoB), who did record business of Rs 60 crore against a target of Rs 20 crore in 2017-18, by allegedly sanctioning Rs 12.15 crore to 57 borrowers who pledged 186 spurious gold ornaments, from the corruption case.

Special Judge for CBI cases HA Mohan rejected the petition filed by accused TL Praveen Kumar, manager of the BoB Hoskote branch.

Referring to the contention of the accused that he was forced to take a decision to sanction more than Rs 60 crore in favour of several borrowers, as there was pressure on him to do business for more than Rs 20 crore, the court observed that just because the higher authority has instructed him to do more business, it does not mean he is authorised to deviate from the procedure established by law.

From May 2015 to July 2017, he was posted to Vondaraguppe branch in Ramanagara district as branch head. During that period, the bank business almost doubled, and the branch made Vondaraguppe village the first 'cashless village'.

The Kengeri branch was opened in July 2017 and the target for the financial year 2017-2018 was fixed at Rs 20 crore. But business was very slow, touching just Rs 2 crore.

To achieve the target, Kumar, the senior manager/branch head, was allegedly forced to work aggressively. He started a gold loan business and Rs 12 crore were given in loans, as a result of which the Kengeri branch was able to achieve a total business of Rs 60 crore, against the target of Rs 20 crore.

"...huge loans were sanctioned on the basis of spurious gold ornaments. Therefore, in the strict sense, it is not his official duty to lend so much money in favour of ineligible persons, that too by receiving spurious gold articles, by forging and fabricating documents," the court said.

It was also alleged that the borrowers are the relatives, friends and employees of SK Subramanya Reddy, the second accused. Some of the borrowers did not go to the bank to sign the documents, but loans were sanctioned, and diverted to Reddy's account. It is also alleged that Kumar diverted a loan amount of Rs 4.49 crore which was utilised by other accused persons, including Reddy, to settle an existing overdraft account held with Syndicate Bank.

The court also rejected the discharge application filed by seven accused, including Reddy.

‘Reconsider’: Nirmala to Oppn on Parl inauguration

Says same parties had abused President before she got elected

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chennai

JUSTIFYING the inauguration of the new Parliament building by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman on Thursday appealed to the Opposition parties to reconsider their decision to boycott the inauguration ceremony on May 28.

She made the appeal while addressing the media at the Raj Bhavan here. The Governors of Tamil Nadu, Telangana, and Nagaland — RN Ravi, Tamilisai Soundararajan and L Ganesan respectively — as well as Union Minister L Murugan and Tamil Nadu HR&CE Minister PK Sekarbabu were present.

“The new Parliament House where representatives of the people will be debating issues is going to be there for another 100 to 200 years. Are we going to boycott this House? It is a temple of democracy. I humbly request the opposition parties to reconsider their stand to boycott,” Sitharaman said.

Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman addresses the media in Chennai on Thursday | EXPRESS

On the charge of the Opposition parties that the BJP is disrespecting the office of the President by not inviting her to inauguration, she said, “I am surprised by this. The very same leaders of the Opposition parties abused her when she contested for Presidentship and are now suddenly motivated to charge she is being disrespected. The PM gives her due respect and all of us are extremely proud of our president.”

On the criticism that there is little historical evidence to establish that this presentation of the Sengol symbolised the transfer of power from the British and reports that the Thiruvavaduthurai Adheenam had merely gifted the Sengol to Jawaharlal Nehru, Sithraman said, “There is as much documentary proof to establish that the presentation of Sengol actually symbolised the transfer of power. All these are derived from research sources and extensive research was already done on this. Besides, across the globe, power is not transferred just by a handshake.”

Sitharaman said that Congress leader Sonia Gandhi had inaugurated the new Assembly building in Chhattisgarh. At this juncture, Tamilisai Soundararajan said that recently, in Telangana, the CM inaugurated the new Assembly building and she had not even been invited to the ceremony.

Asked whether or not the presence of the images of only Hindu deities — Ganesha and Lakshmi — on the Sengol would hurt the sentiments of Indians of other faiths, she said none had objected to it when the sceptre was given to Lord Mountbatten and later handed over to the Nehru, she said.

“Indonesia, a country where Muslims live in majority, has Ganesha and Lakshmi on their currency notes. They don’t have any issue while displaying the images of Hindu Gods since they deem them as their civilisational symbols,” she said.

ISRO set to launch NVS-01 navigation sat on May 29

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) will launch its Geosynchronous Satellite Launch Vehicle (GSLV) mission carrying the NVS-01 satellite on May 29. The NVS-01 satellite is the first satellite to be launched as part of the NVS series of satellites under the Navigation with Indian Constellation (NavIC) services.

NavIC, also known as the Indian Regional Navigation Satellite System (IRNSS), helps in providing information on accurate real-time positioning and timing. Its main objective is to help in real-time regional navigation across the country for both civilian and military purposes.

The NVS series of satellites is the second such series to be launched by NavIC. The first series, the IRNSS satellites, was launched between July 2013 and April 2018. The first series consisted of nine satellites, numbered IRNSS-1A to IRNSS-1I. The NVS series is meant to “supplement and augment” the first series of satellites, wherein some will replace the already existing satellites in their functioning. There are a total of seven planned NVS satellites under the NVS series, which will feature second generation capabilities.

The NVS-01 is scheduled to launch on May 29, Monday, from the Satish Dhawan Space Centre in Sriharikota. According to ISRO, the GSLV-F12 will deploy the 2,232kg satellite into a Geosynchronous Transfer Orbit, following which further maneuvers will be employed to ensure that it is taken to its intended orbit.

The NVS-01 will be launched to replace the previous series IRNSS-1G satellite in usage by NavIC for its short message broadcast services. In particular, the messaging services can be used to broadcast messages to those in rural areas where internet and cellular connectivity is non-existent. One of the uses of the messaging services is to broadcast cyclone and other weather warnings to fishermen.

Interestingly, the NVS-01 will also carry an indigenously-built atomic clock. The previous IRNSS satellite series had initially carried atomic clocks in the IRNSS-1A. However, these had failed due to several issues three years after launch.

The NVS-01 satellite is expected to have a longer lifespan and will carry a new indigenously-built atomic clock. Citizens who wish to witness the launch can register at https://lvg.shar.gov.in, and view the launch from the Launch View Gallery.

Threat calls to Gadkari: NIA files FIR in Bengaluru

ENS @ Belagavi

THE case pertaining to threat calls made to Union Minister for Highways Nitin Gadkari by a prisoner from Hindalga jail in Belagavi has taken a new turn with the National Investigation Agency (NIA) launching investigation after registering an FIR in Bengaluru. Jayesh Kantha alias Jayesh Pujari, a double-murder convict from Mangaluru and prime accused in several other cases, allegedly called Gadkari’s office in Nagpur on January 14 and March 21 and threatened to plant a bomb there if the minister did not pay him Rs 100 crore. The Maharashtra police launched an investigation into it immediately.

The prisoner again made three phone calls to the minister’s public relations office in Nagpur on March 21 demanding Rs 10 crore. He also threatened to harm the minister if the money was not paid. The Nagpur police tightened security at Gadkari’s residence and offices and launched an investigation after registering a case.

As part of their investigation, the Nagpur police visited the Hindalga jail and took Jayesh into custody after interrogation on March 28. A cell phone and two SIM cards were seized from him and he was shifted to Nagpur jail.

It is learnt that Jayesh confessed that he was in touch with four people from Bengaluru who have “connections” with a terrorist outfit. In his phone calls, he had stated that he is a member of the Dawood Ibrahim gang. Thus, the Maharashtra police shared this information with NIA. Sleuths of NIA have registered an FIR against thefour people named by Jayesh.

NOW, IT IS AMUL VS AAVIN: STALIN WRITES TO SHAH

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Chennai

A month after the Congress voiced stiff opposition to Amul’s entry into the Karnataka market where state-owned Karnataka Milk Federation is involved in milk distribution, the ruling DMK has responded in a similar fashion to the Gujarat milk federation’s decision to procure milk in Tamil Nadu. On Thursday, Chief Minister MK Stalin wrote to Union Home Minister Amit Shah urging him to direct Amul to desist from procuring milk in TN with immediate effect. Amul is a brand of the Gujarat Cooperative Milk Marketing Federation (GCMMF).

Stalin said milk procurement in the milk shed area of state-owned Aavin in TN would result in “unhealthy competition” between cooperatives procuring and marketing milk and milk products.

The CM’s letter comes two days after TNIE reported details of Amul’s plans to offer dairy farmers in TN a higher procurement price, along with incentives, compared to Aavin. Stalin said Amul’s decision goes against the spirit of Operation White Flood and will exacerbate problems for consumers given the prevailing milk shortage in the country.

“It has been a norm in India to let cooperatives thrive without infringing on each other’s milk-shed area. This act of Amul infringes on Aavin’s milk shed area, which has been nurtured in true cooperative spirit over decades,” said Stalin. He added that regional cooperatives have been the bedrock of dairy development in states and they are better placed to engage and nurture producers and cushion consumers from arbitrary price hikes.

On behalf of the GCMMF, the Kaira District Cooperative Milk Producers Union (KDCMP), one of the oldest district unions in the country, procures milk in Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, and few other states. It had also planned to procure milk through farmer producer organisations (FPOs) and self-help groups in Tamil Nadu. In addition to a procurement price higher by ₹2 per litre compared to Aavin, Amul representatives have assured dairy farmers of additional incentives and timely payment.

Operating under the umbrella of the Aavin cooperative, 9,673 cooperative societies of milk producers currently operate in rural areas, procuring approximately a total of 35 lakh litres of milk each day.

8 PO passport kendras to be open on Saturdays

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

CITIZENS can now look forward to swifter processing of passports, with the Regional Passport Office deciding to keep its Post Office Passport Seva Kendras (POPSKs) open on Saturdays too, at eight locations across the state. This will open up more slots for the public seeking appointments for passport interviews.

The POPSKs at Jalahalli (Bengaluru), Tumakuru, Mysuru, Ballari, Bidar, Chikkaballapur, Hassan and Vijayapura will remain open beginning this Saturday (May 27), Regional Passport Officer (RPO), Bengaluru, K Krishna, told TNIE.

“Karnataka will be able to provide an additional 514 appointments every Saturday through these POPSKs,” he said. This is in line with a directive by the External Affairs Ministry aimed at reducing the appointment cycle. “POPSKs across the country which have a long waiting period, and even Passport Seva Kendras (PSKs) in some cities which have a waiting period of more than a month, will function on Saturdays in future,” he said.

These eight kendras have been chosen as they have a very high waiting period for appointments, he said.

Krishna said one had to wait 24 days to get an appointment at Tumakuru POPSK, while it was 20 days at Mysuru and 19 days at Jalahalli. The waiting period at Hassan is 16 days, Ballari 13, Bidar 9, Chikkaballapur and Vijayapura (8 each). The waiting time for appointments at PSKs in Bengaluru (Lalbagh & Marathahalli) is 15 days at present. “However, in case of Bengaluru, Mangaluru and Belagavi PSKs, one can opt for tatkal appointments. Only Kalaburagi PSK does not have tatkal facility,” Krishna said.

The allotment of slots for postal appointments on Saturdays would be similar to those provided at POPSKs during weekdays, between 9.30am and 3.30pm, though offices are open till 6pm.

Fishermen vs Navy in Karwar: It’s peace for now

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Karwar

THE Uttara Kannada district administration seems to have brokered peace between fishermen and Navy officials at the INS Kadamba Naval Base, at least for now. In a meeting convened by Prabhuling Kavalikatti, Deputy Commissioner, Uttara Kannada, the fishermen made several complaints against the defence personnel. “Every time we go near their breakwaters, they snap our nets. We are all poor fishermen. We will incur huge losses if this continues,” said Devraj Ambig, a fisherman leader from Majali.

Raju Tandel, a fishermen leader said they are facing a lot of problems from the Naval authorities. “Even though the fishermen restrict themselves within the boundary marked by the Navy, they still face harassment. Even if there are mistakes from fishermen, the problem should be addressed by the coastal police and not the Navy personnel. The district administration should ensure this,” he appealed to the Deputy Commissioner. The Navy officials, who attended the meeting, gave an assurance that they will not damage the nets of fishermen found in the waters near their boundary.

The Navy personnel also tried to explain the reasons behind the fishermen being prevented from entering the waters close to the Naval base by citing security reasons. While Kavalikatti instructed the fishermen not to cross their prescribed borders for fishing, he also told the Navy not to be harsh on the fishermen. “If, by mistake, the fishermen enter the boundary of the Navy or the breakwaters the Navy has created, they should be sent back by telling them not to enter this region,” he said.

Several senior government officials, fishermen leaders like Vinayak Harikantra and several Navy officials attended the meeting. It may be recalled that the fishermen had written to the DC alleging harassment by the Navy.

A meeting with the fishermen was also held at the INS Kadamba Naval Base recently.

AMUL'S FIRM STEP INTO TN LEAVES STATE GOVT IN A FIX OVER AAVIN

After Karnataka, it is the turn of Tamil Nadu to fight out Amul's invasion. While the Gujarat-based dairy giant has been selling its products in TN for years through shops and e-commerce, its recent move to install chilling centres and a processing plant in Krishnagiri with an eye to start procuring milk directly from farmers has irked the state government. An exclusive story in TNIE a couple of days ago brought to light Amul's plans and its offer of ₹1–2 premium per litre to dairy farmers and self-help groups to lure them. Amul, armed with abundant cash reserves and a multi-state cooperative licence, is making an all-out effort in the southern state, putting in peril the operation of state-run dairy cooperatives.

Chief Minister M K Stalin, who is on a foreign trip attracting investments into the state, has dashed off a letter to Home Minister Amit Shah urging him to direct Amul to stay away from milk procurement with immediate effect. On its part, Aavin, which is TN's apex cooperative marketing federation, is in the process of beefing up milk production and expanding processing capacities. Having faced competition from private dairy companies, Aavin has decided to purchase 2,00,000 crossbred jersey milch cows from outside the state to be loaned to dairy farmers. The idea is to strengthen its milk supplier network by bringing into its fold a dedicated set of dairy farmers. Aavin is also providing cattle feed, green fodder and other health services to farmers to help reduce their production cost.

While some argue that Amul's move may help farmers earn a better living, many others call it a temporary succour that will eventually disrupt the market equilibrium and throttle local cooperatives. Should cooperatives be allowed to infringe on each other's milkshed area (where they procure milk from)? Will such cross-procurement go against the basic tenet of India's White Revolution because it triggers unhealthy competition among cooperatives? Undoubtedly, regional cooperatives have been the bedrock of dairy development across India, and they are better placed to engage and nurture producers and cushion consumers from arbitrary price hikes, in each state. TN being a large market for milk and milk products, Amul, the largest dairy brand in India, has a lot to gain from the move. But its entry may sound the death knell for Aavin.

ON A NARCOTIC HIGH, KERALA MUST SAVE ITSELF

Kerala has a drug problem. Despite efforts to curb the menace, drug abuse in society, especially among youngsters, is only growing and it's a matter that demands urgent and serious attention. While there has been a sharp rise in the number of narcotics-related cases registered, the undeniable fact is the quantity of drugs consumed is several times greater than is being detected and impounded. The recent seizure of 2,525 kg of methamphetamine crystals, valued at around ₹20,000 crore, off the Kerala coast points to the enormous quantities of narcotic substances being pumped into India by cartels with a global footprint. According to the investigators, the seized consignment, originally bound for Sri Lanka, was supposed to be later smuggled into India in smaller quantities. There have been three other such seizures in the sea off Kerala in recent times and many elsewhere along the western coast. The involvement of Pakistan-based drug networks also adds a terror angle to the whole enterprise.

Last year, more than 32,000 cases were registered under the NDPS Act in Kerala, a significant increase compared to 9,600-odd cases in 2021. The figure for the first four months of this year stands at over 9,000. The most worrying aspect of the problem is that the abuse is not restricted to cities alone but is widespread even in villages with narcotic substances, including synthetic ones, being available easily across the state. According to officials, most young addicts have shifted to synthetic drugs, preferring a chemical-induced high from where the return is extremely difficult. Even seizures and arrests indicate a growth in the use of synthetic drugs. The rampant drug use in the film industry, especially among actors, has made substance abuse fashionable for youth.

A whole generation and the next getting addicted to drugs should not be allowed to happen. The agencies involved in enforcement have become more alert and are cracking down on drug possession, sale, and abuse. But, they shouldn't be content with arresting the sellers and seizing the contraband. They should go after the source of these drugs, target distribution channels, and shut down the cartels involved. A nationwide coordinated effort is needed to achieve the desired results. A sincere crackdown on drug use by film personalities is also needed. Apart from strengthening awareness programmes, the authorities must address the reasons for the situation and educate the youth about the way out.

QUICK TAKE

FITNESS FIX FOR POLICE

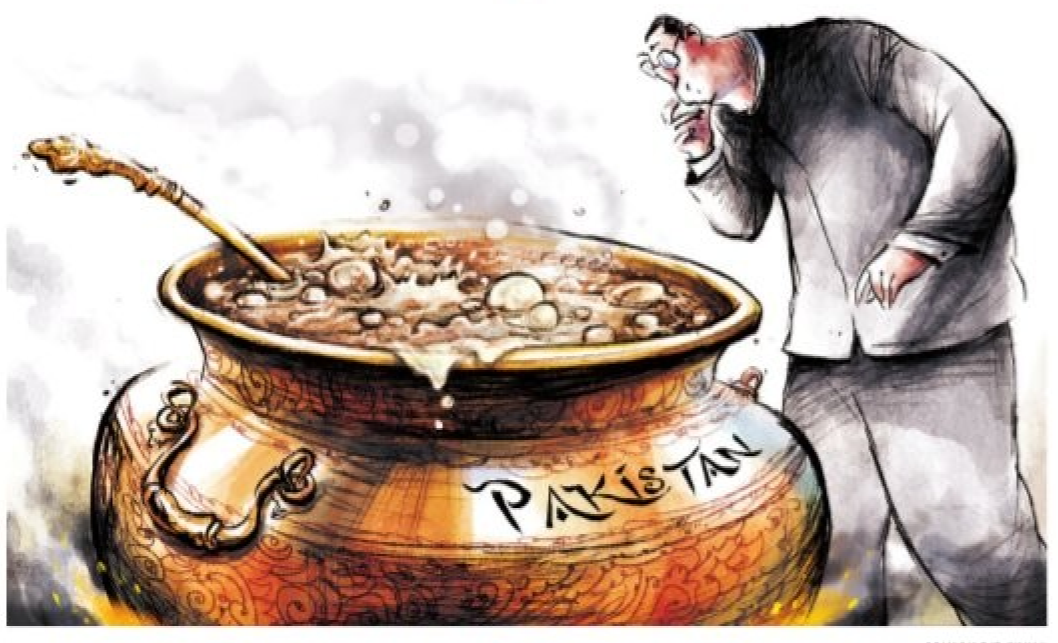
Overweight police personnel in Assam and Haryana will have to quit or retire if they don't get fit in three months. Targeted are those with a BMI of 30+ without valid medical reasons. The decision is unsound. The workstyles of the personnel are mostly sedentary. Sitting or standing for long hours, erratic sleep schedules, irregular meals and stress with little exercise make them obese. The government should sort out these issues and evolve a scientific roster and fitness regimen. In any case, BMI is a flawed metric as it includes even the muscle weight while calculating a body's fat content.

The most abstruse question today would be India's apparent apathy vis-à-vis Pakistan's former PM Imran Khan

INDIA PASSIVELY WATCHES PAKISTAN'S TRAVAILS UNFOLD

M K BHADRAKUMAR

Former diplomat



SOUMYADIP SINHA

The fact that the Indian establishment would view with equanimity the mayhem in Pakistan that at one point seemed heading toward a colour revolution would have come as a surprise. But, quintessentially, it only showed that although the relationship stands barricaded, it has become predictable and somewhat 'stable'. The comfort level is appreciable that Pakistan will weather this storm, as it has done many a storm previously—and some of them had proved to be hurricanes.

A paradox which is seldom understood in the broader public domain in our country is the degree of New Delhi's comfort level with the Pakistani generals and that country's army as an institution. How easy it is for a former head of R&AW to pair with his erstwhile ISI counterpart to reminisce in a single book! Seriously, the Pakistani military can be regarded as a cautious and conservative institution that is averse to risk-taking, and its commitment to Pakistan's stability and security has remained unwavering.

The most abstruse question today would be India's apparent apathy vis-à-vis Imran Khan. On the face of it, Imran Khan claims to represent the forces of change, and there is no denying that Pakistan badly needs 'change' to get out of the cul-de-sac in which the political class has consigned it. But a deep dive will reveal the complexities, as Imran Khan is anything but a one-dimensional man.

Imran Khan is the charioteer of an unwieldy coalition comprising diverse elements ranging from pro-Taliban Islamists to disenchanted ex-faujis and tens of millions of restive youth heaving with frustrations and fired up by aspirations. How the froth would taste when the fermentation is complete is anybody's guess. What happens in such uncertain situations is often that the most organised group gains ascendance. In an analogous situation, Iran's example showed how the 'fedayeen' were drawn from groups with both Marxist and religious tendencies—Tudeh Party, in fact, and its various splinter groups even joined the ulama in broad opposition to the Shah's regime and successfully rallied a society that was at once traditional, conservative, rural and also industrial, modern, and urban—but the leadership of the revolution came into the hands of the religious establishment, which ultimately appropriated state power. Why would any sensible Indian want a similar fate for Pakistan?

In such a paradigm, the Indian establishment will militate against revisionist thinking. Inevitably, the thinking within the security establishment, in particular, will be that the right attitude toward unfolding events—the situation is still evolving—should be, pragmatically speaking, one of hedonistic egoism. Indeed, what would make the Indian establishment happiest will be whatever provides us with the most net pleasure. From the vicious manner in which External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar tore into Bilawal Bhutto, Delhi may have inadvertently conveyed a preference for the Sharifs. The animosity toward Bilawal was quite out of proportion, but it might have been for two reasons.

First, there is no question that Bilawal crossed a red line by finger-pointing at Prime Minister Narendra Modi while on a visit to the US instead of doing the right thing by tipping his hat to a senior politician, keeping all options open. Whatever might have been his motivations—the young man likely got carried away by the effusive welcome from his American counterpart Antony Blinken—there was no real need to have been so very acerbic.

Second, in India-Pakistan folklore, at least, Bhutto and Gandhi families have enjoyed a rare chemistry. And today, it is not only a legacy to be inherited but also generational. That may well be an exaggerated notion, but the present ruling elite must be extremely sensitive about it—although there is nothing stopping them from emulating the consistent pattern of the Gandhi family striving to enrich government-to-government relations with enduring friendships at a personal level with the political aristocracies in India's neighbourhood.

Going forward, however, the status quo is going to be an untenable proposition. Beyond being a hackneyed cliche, it is foolhardy to imagine that the more Pakistan seems to change, the more it remains the same. It is a dynamic and vibrant society on a rising curve of disillusionment with the entrenched power brokers, furious about misgovernance, corruption, economy and so on. It is plain to see that there is no appeal within Pakistan anymore for a politically expedient argument that Indians secretly incubated this potentially terminal illness. Imran Khan is spot on to raise the warning that the spectre of disintegration haunts Pakistan.

What complicates matters today is that the neocons in the Biden administration goofed up, faced with the advent of a new cold war, by repeating the usurpation of power in the Fifties to harness Pakistan's strategic location to the West's advantage in the prevailing bipolar global setting. In the Pakistani context, the famous statement by Karl Marx holds immense relevance: 'History repeats itself, first as tragedy, second as farce.'

The Biden administration could have used diplomacy to preserve American interests while allowing Pakistan the space to navigate its interests too. There were seamless possibilities. Imran Khan remains the most westernised Pakistani politician currently. The US refused to engage with him while aligning with India. The Afghan war posed a huge impediment, but a new beginning was always possible. Imran Khan could have been an optimal interlocutor, given his rapport with the Taliban in Afghanistan.

A government under the Sharifs or Bilawal will operate in a phenomenally changed regional setting. To recall the prescient words of late American statesman and strategic thinker Zbigniew Brzezinski in his celebrated book The Grand Chessboard, 'America's emergence as the sole global superpower now makes an integrated and comprehensive strategy for Eurasia imperative. … The world's most populous aspirants to regional hegemony, China and India, are in Eurasia, as are all the potential political or economic challengers to American primacy. … Collectively, Eurasia's potential power overshadows even America's. Eurasia is the world's axial supercontinent."

The recent Pakistan-China-Afghanistan ministerial in Islamabad, attended by foreign minister Qin Gang, and the inaugural China-Central Asia Summit at Xi'an, chaired by President Xi Jinping, underscore that China will push back, in concert with Russia.

KARNATAKA POLLS WILL NOT DERAIL BJP'S AGENDA OF NATION BUILDING

DR C N ASHWATH NARAYAN

BJP MLA, Malleshwaram Assembly Constituency and former Deputy Chief Minister

The BJP never loses an election. It either wins or learns. Since the time of Jansangh, defeat has been translated into learning and has been one of the main political discourses of the party. The BJP has not been defeated, which is reflected in the people's mandate regarding vote share. While the BJP has maintained a similar vote share since 2018, the Congress, in contrast to its earlier humdrum performance, has achieved stronger consolidation. However, the BJP graciously conceded defeat and accepted the people's mandate with utmost humility. Victories and defeats are parts of the electoral process, and no party is immune to them. The BJP has begun deeper introspection and analysis of the shortcomings.

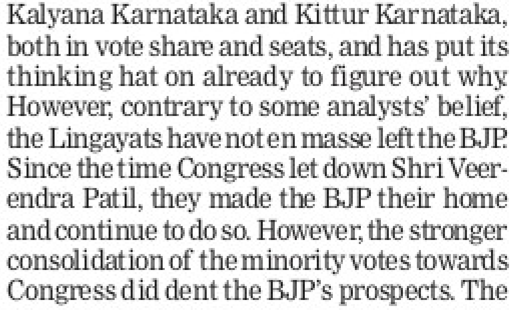
The party had a good agenda as it went to the polls—the development mantra of 'Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas'. The double engine government had brought many initiatives which improved the lives of the common person and the dignity of women like the Ujjwala Yojana, Jal Jeevan Mission, Kisan Samman, PM Awas Yojana, Ayushman Bharat Health Card, building toilets, etc. Probably the party could have been better at effectively communicating this to the electorate.

Preliminary analysis of the electoral mandate has yielded quite a lot of takeaways. It is important to note that despite the seat difference, the BJP's overall vote share has more or less stood the same between 2018 and 2023, at around 36%. This indicates that the voters still trust the BJP and have faith in us. In terms of an absolute number of votes, the BJP has gained an additional 8 lakh votes compared to 2018.

While the vote share has come down in the northern part of the state, it has improved in the southern parts of Karnataka. For instance, in Greater Bengaluru, which comprises the BBMP region, Bengaluru Rural and Ramanagara, the BJP's vote share has improved significantly in this election—from 34.11% in 2018 to 42.19% in 2023, marking an 8.08% increase. We've gained additional seats as well. In the Old Mysore region, too, covering Mandya, Hassan, Mysuru and Chamarajanagar districts, the BJP's vote share has jumped by 2.63%, from 18.67% in 2018 to 21.29% in 2023.

In the southern Karnataka region, comprising Tumakuru, Chikkaballapura and Kolar districts, the BJP has gained. It has recorded an impressive gain of 4.78% vote share, from 17.48% in 2018 to 22.26% in 2023. With this increase in vote share in the south, the party is confident that they've set the wheel in motion to increase the number of seats in these regions, which were hitherto traditional JDS and Congress bastions.

The party witnessed a setback in Central Kalyana Karnataka and Kittur Karnataka, both in vote share and seats, and has put its thinking hat on already to figure out why. However, contrary to some analysts' belief, the Lingayats have not en masse left the BJP. Since the time Congress let down Shri Veerendra Patil, they made the BJP their home and continue to do so. However, the stronger consolidation of the minority votes towards Congress did dent the BJP's prospects. The BJP fell short of consolidating the Scheduled Caste votes to expected levels—leading to a loss of seats across Karnataka.



PTI

The morale is low among the cadre, but the party is making a collective effort to reverse this. We may be down, but we are definitely not out

It is also believed that the BJP paid the price for its social engineering strategies, but they were not made in electoral interest. The party delved into the reservation issue keeping the people's best interests in mind. It wanted to give a higher representation to communities left behind socially, economically and politically, thereby empowering them.

Several other factors influenced the election results. Among them is the electorate's choice to exercise the NOTA option, which dwarfed the margin of victories in many key constituencies of the BJP. The party stood a good chance of winning in Jagalur, Sringeri, Mudigere, Malur, and Gandhinagar, to name a few. But opposition candidates scraped through with a few hundred additional votes.

The BJP probably also lacked a coherent campaign strategy. It should have set the agenda months ahead of the election. But since it was the ruling party, administration and governance gained primacy, especially in the aftermath of the Covid-19 pandemic. The party was more focused on putting the state back on the development track. So, the official electoral campaign kick-start was late, giving Congress the head-start advantage.

The BJP, confident of having given a good administration, failed to sense the lack of enthusiasm amongst its core voters. The party did get complacent beyond a point.

In a bold move, the BJP denied tickets to many sitting MLAs and fielded many fresh faces as it believes in giving opportunities to honest, humble grassroots workers. This can happen only in a party like the BJP. However, the party failed to strengthen or empower these candidates electorally, owing to paucity of time.

Well, as it is said, it is not how we fall but how we get back up again. Yes, the morale is low among the cadre, but the party is making a collective effort to reverse this. We may be down, but we are definitely not out. Going forward, the party will work as a constructive opposition by keeping the government in check. The party will hold the incumbent government accountable. We will take to the streets and voice the issues of the masses. The 2023 election is an isolated incident that does not reflect the BJP's performance or strength. This defeat should not dampen our spirits and morale. The leadership is strengthening the party at the grassroots level and making it a potent force for the upcoming local body elections. And the BJP will shortly start preparations for the 2024 parliamentary election.

Our aim is to repeat the performance in the 2019 general election. The party is chalking out strategies to roll out an effective campaign, primarily focusing on the Central government's performance and its positive impact on the life of the common person. Gaining maximum seats in Karnataka and empowering our beloved leader and PM Narendra Modi to take our country to much greater heights is the responsibility of every BJP karyakarta in the state.

Exam pressure

Apropos of National Curriculum Framework and the gaps in the system (May 25). To reduce students' stress, it is better to have external examinations in smaller chunks to validate the performance in internal assessments. The lack of earnest and meaningful research is responsible for the continued burden on children and parents. The time has come to work out practical ways of conducting external examinations.

Drug abuse

Apropos of Ban awaits members peddling drugs as Beemapally jamaath gets strict (May 25). It is indeed a laudable decision of the Beemapally jamaath committee to use ostracism and peer pressure to dissuade drug peddlers. Drug abuse is rampant and so this decision is worth emulating.

Country poised for record food grain output

Agriculture ministry's third advanced estimate says production up by about 5 per cent in 2022-23 crop year

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @ New Delhi

Third Advance Estimates of production of major crops

Wheat	1,120	1,121.82	1,127.43
Coarse grains	559	527.26	547.48
Pulses	295.50	278.10	275.04

Jute & Mesta	105 lakh bales (1 bale= 180kg)	100.49 lakh bales	94.94 lakh bales

Quantity in Lakh Metric Tonnes (LMT); Source: Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers' Welfare

THE third advanced estimate of food grain production shows that India will register a record production of major crops.

Food grain production increased by around 5 per cent compared to the previous year. The current estimation is also well beyond the set target.

Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare today released food grain production estimation data, which shows that the country will have a production of 3,305.34 lakh metric tonnes (LMT) for the year 2022-23, higher by 149.18 LMT as compared to the previous 2021-22. Last year the food grains production was 3,156.16 LT. Even the set target of food production is estimated at 3,280 LMT.

Official data showed a record production of rice, wheat, maize, soybean, rapeseed and mustard and sugarcane.

Minister of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare Narendra Singh Tomar said the country will produce a record quantity of food grains, acknowledging credit to farmers, scientists and the vision of Prime Minister Modi. "The agriculture sector is developing due to the hard work of farmers, proficiency of scientists and farmer-friendly policies of the government," said Tomar.

The assessment of production of various crops is based on the feedback received from states and validated with information available from other sources. This assessment shall undergo further revision over successive estimates based on alternative sources and other factors. The fourth and final estimates of food grain production will take few months.

Despite inclement weather and loss of crops, crop production is going to increase. The total production of rice, for instance, during 2022-23 is estimated at (a record) 1,355.42 lakh metric tonnes (LMT). It is higher by 60.71 lakh tonnes compared to the previous year.

However, data shows that production of rice is estimated to have declined in rabi and kharif seasons. But the ministry has added another 96 LMT rice production in the summer cropping season. There is no previous data available for the summer cropping season. Experts say data on summer cropping season should be a part of rabi season. A similar trend is visible in moong pulses production. There is a drastic decline in kharif and rabi season production of moong pulses. However, there is an exceptional increase of over 19 LMT moong in summer cropping.

Trade commodity analysts are doubtful about the data, saying the number is overestimated. The production estimation of wheat is also going to register a record production despite unseasonal rains and unusually high temperatures in the month of February.

The wheat production estimation in the country is at 1127.43 LMT, which is higher by 50.01 LMT as compared to the previous year's production.

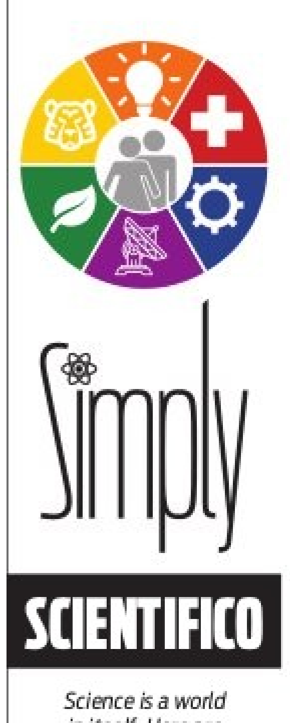
Agri-commodity analysts say the quantity of wheat production would not be an issue, but quality will matter.

The comparison of the second advance estimation with the third one shows a sharp increase in production estimations especially in rice, wheat and oilseeds. Meantime, the country has witnessed unusual weather conditions that have impacted crops.

The third advanced estimation shows a record production of maize in the country. The production estimation is at 359.13 LMT, which is higher by 21.83 lakh tonnes than the previous year's production.

DISCOVERY

MAGIC GENE MUTATION FOR HUMANS FREE OF PAIN, ANXIETY



SCIENTIFICO

Science is a world in itself. Here are some interesting facts that connect with you

Nirad Mudur

Researchers of University College London (UCL) have made a new striking discovery that could not only lead to new drug targets but also pave the way for a whole new research stream to develop future generations to live free of pain, with reduced anxiety and fear, besides healing physical wounds more rapidly. Call it magic, but the secret behind this finding is a genetic mutation and the biology behind it, which — with genetic engineering methods — holds potential to have humans who could be much tougher than those living now, both physically and mentally. The UCL research team came upon this discovery while following up on their earlier discovery in 2019 of a gene mutation they named 'FAAH-OUT' (FAAH being the name of the gene) which caused a woman patient to feel no physical pain, anxiety or fear. Their latest finding, however, described how exactly the mutation in the FAAH-OUT gene stunted and turned down its expression, which was directly linked to the woman feeling no pain. Linked to it, they also found some other genes that were either turned off or on, and had resulting gene expressions that led to faster wound healing, and effects on moods like absence of anxieties and fear. According to the study, published in journal Brain, the team observed that the FAAH gene was significantly turned down as a result of the mutation. FAAH enzyme activity levels were significantly reduced, which was linked to reduction in physical pain. When the researchers studied the cells called fibroblasts — which contribute to the formation of connective tissue, a fibrous cellular material that supports and connects other tissues or organs in the body — taken from the patient, they fund that apart from FAAH, there were 797 other genes that showed expressions while 348 others turned the expressions down. These had led to alterations in certain pathways associated with wound healing.

MACHINE LEARNING

AI TO PREDICT EXTREME WEATHER EVENTS ACCURATELY

Columbia University School of Engineering and Applied Science researchers have developed an artificial intelligence and machine-learning algorithm to more accurately understand, predict and mitigate the impact of extreme weather events. With such events becoming more frequent and unpredictable purportedly due to the warming of the climate globally, the latest development is being considered significant to be better prepared. The Columbia researchers overcame a missing piece of information in traditional climate model parameterizations, which describe cloud structure and organization that are so fine-scale that they are not captured on the computational grid being used for predictions. Because of this lacunae, while precipitation can be actually very varied and extreme, climate models have been predicting much smaller variations in precipitation, and predict lighter rain, while in reality, much heavier downpour catches people unawares. However, the new development at Columbia University School of Engineering and Applied Science used machine learning along with global storm-resolving simulations and created an algorithm that can deal separately with two different scales of cloud organization: those resolved by a climate model, and those that cannot be resolved as they are too small. This new approach proved to convincingly address the missing piece of information in traditional climate model parameterizations and provided a way to predict precipitation intensity and variability more precisely. The Columbia researchers say the new approach helps better understand the sub-grid cloud organization metric in climate models. This, they have found, improved predicting precipitation intensity and variability, and enabled scientists to better project future changes in water cycles and extreme weather patterns in a warming climate.

Stanford lecture, meets with senators, celebrities to keep Rahul busy in US

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

TWO months after his visit to the UK, Rahul Gandhi is all set to visit the United States on May 30. During his six-day tour, the senior Congress leader will be meeting senators, celebrities, dignitaries, students and business leaders, among others, in the US. The visit comes ahead of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to the US on June 22.

In New York, Rahul will meet a group of prominent Indian-American celebrities such as film director Mira Nair, comedian Hasan Minhaj, actor Aziz Ansari, award-winning author Kiran Desai and model-turned-actor-turned-TV host Padma Lakshmi, among others.

Diaspora to host dinner for Rahul

There are dinners hosted by diaspora in which senators and Congressmen may be there, said Praveen Chakravarty, Chairperson of the Congress Data Analytics Department. In New York, Rahul Gandhi will be meeting a group of well-known artists, painters, writers, and actors among others. On June 4, he will attend a rally of more than 10,000 people in New York

The visit to the US was planned after Gandhi received an invitation from Stanford University in California to deliver a lecture last month, said Praveen Chakravarty, Chairperson of the Congress Data Analytics Department. On May 30, Gandhi will be interacting with the Indian diaspora, venture capitalists, students, and technology executives in Silicon Valley.

Speaking to this newspaper, Chakravarty, who has been coordinating the tour, said Gandhi will speak at the auditorium at Stanford University where former US President Barack Obama delivered a speech. "This was an invitation from Stanford University. It was important to connect with Indians in America after the stupendous success of the Bharat Jodo Yatra and victory of Congress in Karnataka," he said. While Chakravarty will be accompanying Gandhi from India, he will be joined by Sam Pitroda in the US and members of the Indian Overseas Congress. Gandhi will deliver a speech on the topic 'The New Global Equilibrium" at Stanford University on May 31. "Gandhi will be talking about the changing world and India's role in it," he said.

During Gandhi's UK trip, Gandhi's remarks on the 'state of Indian democracy' sparked controversy back home after several BJP ministers demanded an apology from Gandhi.

Gandhi will be in Washington DC on June 1-2, said Chakravarty. On June 1, Gandhi will be speaking at the National Press Club, where former PMs Indira Gandhi and Rajiv Gandhi had also addressed the press.

MAYAWATI TERMS OPPN BOYCOTT 'UNFAIR'

Mayawati

AFTER attending a JDS meeting to assess reasons for its poor performance in the state Assembly polls, Gowda told reporters, "I will attend the Parliament building inauguration ceremony. Is it a BJP or RSS office that I should not go for it?"

He termed the new Parliament building an asset of the country and not an issue of any individual. The magnificent structure has been built with taxpayers' money and it belongs to the country, he said, adding that it is not a BJP or RSS office. "I will attend the inaugural ceremony as a former PM and as a citizen of India," he said.

Gowda said he had many reasons to oppose BJP politically, but he would not like to bring politics to the inauguration of the Parliament building. He said that he has been a member of both houses of Parliament and always worked within the framework of the Constitution and would not like to bring politics into it.

"I am committed to the Constitution and that is the reason I am attending the ceremony," Gowda said responding to a question.

The opposition parties have accused Modi of sidelining President Droupadi Murmu and termed it an assault to democracy and the Constitution.

Gowda enjoys a good rapport with Modi as well as senior leaders from Congress and other Opposition parties. In the recent Assembly polls, JDS fought against BJP and Congress.

Meanwhile, Mayawati termed the Opposition boycott of the event as "unfair". She said the Centre has the right to unveil it as it has built it. Taking to twitter on Thursday, the BSP chief said, "Whether it was the Congress party's government at the Centre or now the BJP's, the BSP has always extended its support to them over issues related to the country and public interest, rising above party politics. Viewing the inauguration of the new Parliament building in the same context, the party welcomes it."

However, while expressing her gratitude for being invited by the Centre to the programme and extending her "best wishes for its success", she expressed her inability to attend the event owing to her "pre-scheduled engagements regarding the continuous review meetings of the party."

PIL in SC says Prez should inaugurate new building

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

AMID the Opposition parties' plans to boycott the inauguration of the new Parliament building by PM Narendra Modi on May 28, a PIL has been filed in Supreme Court seeking directions, observation or suggestion to the Lok Sabha Secretariat that the building should be inaugurated by President of India Draupadi Murmu.

The plea filed by advocate CR Jaya Sukin states that the President is the First Citizen of India and all important decisions regarding the country are taken in the name of Indian President. It has been contended in the plea that Lok Sabha Secretariat has violated the Constitution by not inviting the President for inauguration.

"That the statement issued by Lok Sabha Secretariat on May 18 and the invites issued by Secretary General, Lok Sabha regarding inauguration of the new Parliament building is arbitrary and violates the principles of natural justice and Articles 21, 79 and 87 of the Constitution of India," the plea stated. It further stated, "Injustice has been caused to the Nation People and they have been affected."

4 cow vigilantes in Raj get 7-yr jail for lynching

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

A Rajasthan court on Thursday sentenced four accused to seven years of imprisonment in a horrific case of mob lynching by cow vigilantes in 2018.

On July 20 that year, Rakbar Khan aka Akbar, a resident of Haryana, along with Aslam were taking a cow from Lalawandi village in Ramgarh at night. Suspecting cow smuggling, some vigilantes attacked them. While Aslam escaped, Rakbar was badly bruised in the assault before he was handed over to the police. He was taken to a hospital in a critical state where succumbed to his injuries.

Delivering the verdict, an Alwar court imposed a penalty of ₹10,000 as well on each of the four cow vigilantes — Paramjit Singh, Dharmendra Yadav, Naresh and Vijay. However, fifth accused Naval Kishore Sharma was acquitted due to lack of sufficient evidence.

All four accused were convicted under sections 304A (death by negligence not amounting to culpable homicide) and 341 (wrongful restraint) of the IPC.

Hemraj Gupta, lawyer for the accused, said that if the charge of mob lynching was accepted, the accused ought to have been considered guilty under Section 147 (rioting). But the court cleared all under that section and convicted them only under Section 304. However, advocate Ashok Sharma, appearing for the victim, said there is no IPC section for mob lynching. The sections in which the accused have been held guilty are part of Section 302 (murder).

A large number of people were present outside the court since morning for the verdict. Personnel from several police stations were deployed as a precautionary measure. After the verdict, some people raised slogans against the Gehlot government.

Long travel, poor facilities pain points for CUET-UG exam aspirants

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

PARU, 18, travelled around 100 km to reach his CUET-UG examination centre in Meerut from Delhi. Two days later, he drove for another 45 km to Noida from his house in southwest Delhi to take the next exam.

Guddu Kumar tweeted his sister had to travel from Amritsar to Delhi. The two cities are 400 km apart.

These are not the isolated cases of students travelling long distance to take the second edition of the Common University Entrance Test (CUET-UG), which started on May 21.

Mumbai resident Ridhee said her centre was not even in Maharashtra. She wrote her exam in Ahmedabad, Gujarat.

Sai Sudhamshu of Hyderabad considers himself lucky. His centre for May 28 test is an hour's drive from his house.

Not just the distance, lack of arrangements at exam centres such as drinking water or a comfortable waiting area for accompanying parents added to the woes of aspirants seeking admission to UG courses.

"I was very nervous, not so much about the exam, but about reaching the centre on time. There was heavy traffic. I managed to reach an hour before the exam began," Paru told TNIE. He added that his father, who had accompanied him, had a tough time as there were no arrangements for parents outside the Meerut or Noida centres. "He had to sit in the car with the air-conditioner on till my exam got over, as it was very hot outside in the afternoon," said Paru, who took the CUET-UG exam on May 22 and 24 in the third shift (3.30 to 6.30 pm).

However, UGC chairman Prof M Jagadesh Kumar said the authorities have made all possible address the issues. Citing the example of Jammu and Kashmir, where exams were deferred to May 26 after students took to social media to complain about being forced to travel to Punjab for writing the exam, Kumar said all students are allotted centres in J&K.

On parents facing problems at the centre while waiting for their wards, Kumar said in many centres, water and snacks are arranged for them. "In some centres, even buses were arranged to transport students and parents," he added.

Notably, no significant technical problems were reported this time compared with the maiden CUET-UG exam, which was marred with technical glitches, cancellations, and students missing the tests because of distance to exam centres.

India's TB cases down by 13% in 7 yrs: Mandaviya

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

INDIA is the only country in the world to have developed its own mechanism for estimating its tuberculosis burden as it aims to eliminate the disease by 2025, Union Health Minister Mansukh Mandaviya said on Thursday.

Announcing that the country has witnessed a 13 per cent reduction in TB incidence from 2015 to 2022, he said India has even surpassed the global reduction rate of 10 per cent. The minister was speaking at a Quad Plus side event on tuberculosis during the 76th World Health Assembly in Geneva.

Mandaviya added that TB mortality in India has decreased by 15 per cent during the same period. India, he said, is the only country in the world to have developed its own mechanism for estimating its TB burden. This was done by employing a mathematical model based on local evidence. "India can now determine the true burden of the disease well ahead of the annual WHO report," he said.

Emphasising the significance of the upcoming UN meeting on tuberculosis scheduled for September as an opportunity to evaluate the collective progress made towards ending TB, he commended India's dedication to eliminating TB by 2025, five years ahead of the global Sustainable Development Goal.

Recognising the importance of early diagnosis, treatment, and preventive measures, the health minister said, "To identify all missing cases and reach the 'unreached', India has taken diagnostics and treatment to the patients at the last mile."

"To ensure universal health coverage to each and every patient, we have established over 1.5 lakh health and wellness centres which provide TB diagnostics and care to all patients, along with a host of other primary healthcare services," he said.

Punjab fuel pumps no to ₹2k notes with measly purchase

They will take the banknotes only when one buys oil worth that much

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

Fuel stations cite they are flooded with ₹2,000 notes following the gradual phasing out of the currency bills | PTI

FUEL stations across Punjab are requesting customers that if one buys fuel worth ₹2,000 or more, then they would accept the notes and not for the measly purchase of ₹50 and the like. They cite the problem of change as they are flooded with ₹2,000 notes following the gradual phasing out of the currency bills around a week ago.

Due to the sudden inflow of legal tender, digital payments have fallen to around 10% from 40% of the daily sales, according to Punjab Petroleum Dealers Association. However, filling stations get 90% of their sales in cash in the form of ₹2,000 notes, the association added.

The RBI recently explained that ₹2,000 notes would continue to be the legal tender, customers across the board have suddenly started giving these notes to petrol pumps, general shops, food outlets, bakeries, and others. This has brought extra pressure of change on these businesses. Most retailers are requesting their customers to pay either online or with currencies other than ₹2,000 notes.

Sandeep Sehgal, president of the Punjab Petroleum Dealers Association, said the RBI decision to withdraw ₹2,000 note has again created the 2016 demonetization situation. "Most customers are trying to use ₹2,000 notes even for small purchases of ₹100 to 200. We request the RBI to give guidelines to banks for providing enough small denomination notes, especially to fuel stations in lieu of ₹2,000 notes so that we can smoothly serve our customers,'' he said.

If the situation continues, it will create trouble for us with income tax authorities, said Sehgal. While announcing the phasing out of ₹2,000 note, the RBI said these notes, introduced in November 2016, were meant to meet the currency requirement of the time in the context of the demonetization of the ₹500 and ₹ 1,000 notes in circulation at that time. Printing of new ₹2,000 notes was stopped in FY19 and most of these notes are at the end of their life span.

RBI's decision to withdraw these notes is in light of its 'clean note policy.' The central bank has also made it clear that the stock of banknotes in other denominations continues to be adequate to meet the currency requirement of the public.

Slum dwellers get Maha govt help for pucca houses

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

AHEAD of the BMC elections, the Maharashtra government led by chief minister Eknath Shinde has decided to give pakka dream houses to slum dwellers at a cost of ₹2.50 lakh in Mumbai.

The Maharashtra State Housing Department issued the government resolution (GR) on Thursday. As per the GR, the cabinet sub committee appointed by the housing minister.

It one of the major decisions by the Shinde-Fadnavis government to make the slum dwellers happy by giving them pakka houses in redevelopment. Earlier, the Shinde government allowed women to commute in he government buses by giving a 50 per cent discount in the bus travel.

According to the GR, the slum dwellers have to fulfill certain conditions to get a house for two- -and-a-half lakh rupees. The Chief Executive Officer of the Slum Rehabilitation Authority has been entrusted with the responsibility of determining these conditions and criteria for eligible beneficiaries. BJP Mumbai unit president Ashish Shelar expressed his gratitude towards CM Shinde and deputy CM Devendra Fadnavis.

A-G to appear for Raj govt in SC in Jaipur blasts case

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

RAJASTHAN Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot on Thursday said his government will make all efforts to ensure that the culprits in the Jaipur serial blasts case are meted out the harshest punishment, and towards this end the government has appointed Attorney General of India as its counsel in the Supreme Court.

"It will be the effort of the government to ensure that the harshest punishment is meted out in such cases. That is why we have appointed the Attorney General there (in the Supreme Court) as a lawyer. The matter has been taken up in the Supreme Court. Now, I understand that the hearing is starting, there will definitely be decisions on it….," Gehlot told reporters.

During the tenure of Vasundhara Raje as state CM, on May 13, 2008 a series of bomb blasts in Jaipur killed 71 people and injured 185 others.

The special court which heard this case had convicted Mohammad Sarwar Azmi, Mohammad Saif, Mohammad Salman and Saifur Rehman on December 18, 2019 and sentenced them to death. However, the Rajasthan High Court quashed the conviction due to lack of evidence.

The court also pulled up the probe agency for its "poor" investigation.

In the election year, the BJP seems keen to encash on this issue and is claiming that it was a result of Congress' laxity in pursuing the case due to vote bank politics.

Kicking off the Rajasthan campaign two weeks ago, Prime Minister Narendra Modi targeted the Congress government for the acquittals of Jaipur blast case. Union Minister Amit Shah had also raked up this issue during a public rally in Bharatpur last month and had accused the Gehlot government of playing 'appeasement politics'.

'Beef samosa': Auto driver held in Surat

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

AN auto-rickshaw driver has been arrested for allegedly transporting beef-stuffed samosas in Gujarat's Surat, police said on Thursday.

The police recovered 45 stuffed samosas from the accused possession. A Surat rural police officer said the Mangrol police station received information about a man preparing to transport samosas stuffed with beef in his auto-rickshaw.

Tipu's sword goes under hammer for ₹140 crore

ADITI KHANNA @ London

The bedchamber sword of Tipu Sultan

A fabled sword found in the private bedchamber of 18th century Mysore ruler Tipu Sultan has broken all auction records for an Indian object for Bonhams in London by fetching ₹140 crore (GBP 14 million/ $17.4 million) at its Islamic and Indian Art sale this week.

The sword, from Tipu Sultan's reign between 1782 and 1799, is described as a fine gold koftgari hilted steel sword referred to as sukhela an emblem of authority. It was found in the private apartments of Tipu Sultan and presented to Major General David Baird by the Army of the East India Company as a "token of their high esteem of his courage and conduct in the assault" which resulted in the killing of Tipu Sultan, known as the Tiger of Mysore.

"This spectacular sword is the greatest of all the weapons linked to Tipu Sultan still in private hands," said Oliver White, Bonhams' Head of Islamic and Indian Art and auctioneer, in a statement ahead of the sale on Tuesday.

"Its close personal association with the Sultan, its impeccable provenance traceable to the very day it was captured, and the outstanding craftsmanship that went into its manufacture make it unique and highly desirable," he said.

The sword had a guide price between GBP 1,500,000 and 2,000,000 but went on to surpass that estimate to fetch GBP 14,080,900.

"The sword has an extraordinary history, an astonishing provenance and unrivalled craftsmanship. It was no surprise it was so hotly contested between two phone bidders and a bidder in the room. We are delighted with the result," said Nima Sagharchi, Group Head of Islamic and Indian Art. PTI

Bengal rural body polls may see '18 re-run as blasts, violence escalate

PRANAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

SPORADIC incidents of explosions at different parts of West Bengal in the past few months have raised a question whether the state will witness blood bath in the upcoming panchayat elections.

Blasts at places where explosives were stockpiles have already claimed a total of 16 lives, including three minors, in the past five months. This year, there were 10 explosions at the crude bomb manufacturing units in the state, right from a house in a village to a makeshift structure in a paddy field.

Opposition parties alleged the rural election will witness re-run of violence the state's electorates experienced in the 2018 panchayat elections.

"The explosions took place when either crude bombs were being manufactured or fire caught the stockpile of explosives accidentally. In some of the cases, many children were injured when they hit bombs thinking it was a ball," said a police officer.

Nine people, including a student of Class X, were killed in a major explosion on May 16, were killed. "During the course of investigation, the sleuths of the criminal investigation department found Krishnapada Bag alias Bhanu had set up a bomb-manufacturing unit on his property where his family members used to go frequently," said a senior police officer.

Sensing discontent among the people in Egra, who supported the TMC in the 2021 Assembly elections, CM Mamata Banerjee decided to visit the area on Saturday. "The chief minister may announce help for the families of the deceased," said an official.

The Opposition parties alleged the recent incidents of explosions are clear evidence that the ruling party is gearing up for violence. "There will be number of intra-party clashes in the TMC over getting candidature tickets," said CPI(M)'s central committee member Sujan Chakrabarty.

Proud to be woman and born in tribal family, says Prez Murmu

MUKESH RANJAN @ Ranchi

President Droupadi Murmu with CM Hemant Soren at Kunti on Thursday | EXPRESS

WHILE addressing a conference of Women Self Help Groups at Khunti on the second day of her visit to Jharkhand, Murmu President Droupadi Murmu said that she is proud to be a woman and to have been born in a tribal family.

She expressed her disappointment and said that it was sad that Jharkhand did not develop as it should have. However, she said she was happy about the last 22 years, where barring once, all the chief a ministers, union minister for tribal affairs and 28 MLAs here were tribals.

"Being a tribal, I want to rub the sacred soil of Khunti on my head that the great freedom fighter Bhagwan Birsa Munda belonged to. I am proud to be a woman and to be born in a tribal family. There are several examples of the contribution of women in the field of politics, economy, education, social welfare and sports among others," said Murmu. There are a lot of women who are moving forward even in adverse conditions and leading in their fields, she said.

Murmu, while talking to the SHG women, also admitted that she is deeply connected with land of Birsa Munda.

"I am from Odisha, but the blood of Jharkhand runs in my body as my grandmother came from the same family in which minister Joba Manjhi has been married to," said the President further adding that, "It is the power of democracy that today I am present here before you." Lauding women power, Murmu said that she has observed during convocations that girls are performing better than boys.

"Of late, many of the tribal women were conferred with Padma awards whose achievements got unnoticed earlier and now Darbar Hall of Rashtrapati Bhawan echoes with applauses for them," she said.

The President said Jharkhand is a tribal dominated state and out of nearly one crore tribals living here, half are women and most of them are self-dependent, which is women empowerment in real sense.

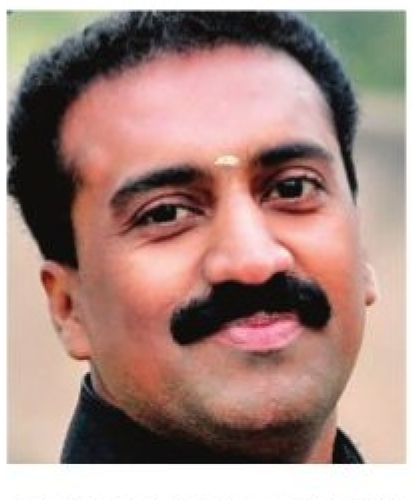
Ramcharitmanas sung in single track by BHU Prof in Guinness book record

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow



A Banaras Hindu University (BHU) faculty of Vedic Science, Dr Jagadeesh Pillai, has a penchant to make it to the Guinness Book of world records every now and then. The latest entry is his fifth into the prestigious record book as he has released the longest song composed and recorded by him based on the epic 'Shri Ram Charit Manas' written by 16th-century bhakti poet Tulsidas.

The song composed and recorded by Pro Pillai a single track is of 138-hour, 41-minute and 20 seconds duration and the accomplishment of the BHU professor has made the epic, which comprises of around 11,000 verses, get the global recognition by officially entering the Guiness Book of World Records as the longest composition.

The epic is in the Awadhi language spoken in central Uttar Pradesh. As per Dr Pillai, the video recording of the song began on May 20, 2019, following the guidelines of Guiness World Records. However, during the pandemic, the recording was halted for a year and resumed to be completed in November, last year.

The Guinness World Records say: "The longest officially released song is 138 hr 41 min 20 sec, and was achieved by Dr Jagadeesh Pillai (India) in Varanasi, Uttar Pradesh, India, on April 12, 2023."

Significantly, after five years of airing the rendition of Shri Ram Charit Manas on over 100 audio channels like Apple Music, Spotify, Amazon Music, Prof Pillai got the remarkable feat of entering yet again in Guiness Book to his credit. According to Dr Pillai, earlier the longest officially released song was of 115 hours 45 minutes by Mark Christopher Lee and The Pocket Gods from St Albans, Hertfordshire, UK was registered on December 1, 2021.

However, while recording the epic in single track, Dr Pillai created a new melody for the epic. It took him four years, 63 days and 295 hours to complete recording, editing and mixing.

His first entry into Guiness record was in 2012 when he had broken the Canadian record by making an animation movie in the shortest possible time. He also made records of the 'longest line of postcard', the "largest poster awareness campaign", and the 'longest envelope under the Yoga public awareness campaign'.

UP minister of state AYUSH, Food Safety and Drug Administration, Dayashankar Mishra 'Dayalu' on Wednesday met Pillai and expressed his best wishes to him.

Imran barred from leaving Pak, added to no-fly list

Over 600 leaders of his party also on the list over alleged links to violence

ISLAMABAD

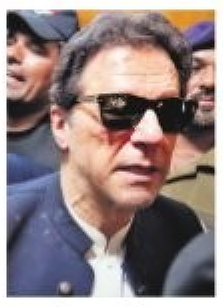
FORMER prime minister Imran Khan, his wife Bushra Bibi and more than 600 leaders and former assembly members of the Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf party have been barred from leaving the country, media reports said on Thursday.

Citing sources within the Federal Investigation Authority (FIA), the Geo News reported that the names of the PTI leaders and its party chief have been added for their involvement in the May 9 violence and desecration of martyrs' monuments. However, there was no official confirmation on the development from Imran's party.

The names have been added to the FIA's Provincial National Identification List (PNIL) to prevent them from going abroad, the sources said.

The sources claimed that some of the PTI leaders and office bearers tried leaving the country in the last three days, however, they were stopped at the airports.

The list includes leaders like Murad Saeed, Maleeka Bokhari, Fawad Chaudhry, Hammad Azhar, Qasim Suri, Asad Qaiser, Yasmin Rashid and Mian Aslam Iqbal.



Imran Khan

Fawad Chaudhry has already quit the party but his name has been listed among those who cannot fly out of Pakistan.

The names of all the PTI leaders were put in the list on the recommendation of the institutions concerned, the Samaa News channel reported.

It said that the police department, National Accountability Bureau and the anti-corruption department had requested the Ministry of Interior to include these names to the no-fly list.

The no-fly list is maintained by the Ministry of Interior and officials deployed at airports or other land exit routes are provided the names of individuals who cannot go out.

Pakistan authorities maintain different categories of people who are banned from leaving the country for various reasons, including those who face corruption cases.

But these lists had been used in the past by the governments to muzzle the opposition.

When Khan was the prime minister, names of several high-profile personalities, including PML-N leader and current prime minister Shehbaz Sharif, were put on the no-fly list. PTI

Asad Umar resigns as PTI's Secretary General

Asad Umar, who was Khan's Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) party's Secretary General, announced stepping down from all party positions. "Not possible for me to lead the party under these circumstances. I am resigning as Secretary General ... of PTI," he said. Umar clarified that he has not left PTI but only resigned from the party positions.

16 activists of PTI party handed over to army

In a first, 16 activists of Imran Khan's Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf, including a former lawmaker, were handed over to the military authorities on Thursday for their trial under the stringent Army Act and the Official Secrets Act for allegedly torching the Lahore Corps Commander's House. The government has cracked down on Imran's supporters since May 9.

Imran says undeclared martial law in Pakistan

Imran Khan on Thursday filed a petition in the Supreme Court challenging the deployment of the army to aid the civilian administration, terming it as 'undeclared martial law.' Imran moved the Supreme Court of Pakistan against Shehbaz Sharif's government that invoked Article 245 in several provinces.

Kohinoor shown as symbol of conquest, not gift

LONDON

THE Kohinoor diamond, claimed by India, will go on display with a new exhibition at the Tower of London on Friday within a "symbol of conquest" setting to try and contextualise its turbulent colonial history in a "transparent, balanced and inclusive" way.

Kohinoor, also referred to as Koh-i-Noor, forms part of the new Jewel House exhibition at the tourist attraction and is accompanied by a video that charts the diamond's journey around the globe.

The attached labels for specific royal ornaments the Kohinoor has adorned over the years further explain the history of the diamond. PTI

AIRLINES SAY NO TO PAPER BOXES FOR MEALS

Singapore Airlines (SIA) on Thursday said it will not proceed with using paper boxes for in-flight meals on medium and long-haul flights "for now," following the feedback from its trial earlier this year. The trial was rolled out in March this year for economy class meals on a small number of medium and long-haul flights which sparked criticism about the airline's food standards, CNA reported. Taking all the feedback about the trial into account, the spokesperson of SIA said the airline has "decided not to proceed with this new service ware for now"

PUBERTY MOVIE WINS TOP CANNES PRIZE

A Malaysian movie with a gruesome and funny look at puberty won the top award of the Cannes Film Festival's Critics' Week. Amanda Nell Eu's "Tiger Stripes" follows 12-year-old Zaffan, who lives in a small rural community in Malaysia and watches her body transform at an alarming rate. It drew comparisons to "Raw", the breakout film by French director Julia Ducournau, which played in Critics' Week in 2016, and propelled her to the festival's overall top prize, the Palme d'Or five years later for "Titane." This year's Critics' Week jury was led by French director Audrey Diwan

Wagner chief says handing Bakhmut to Russian military

KYIV

THE head of the Russian private military contractor Wagner claimed on Thursday that his forces have started pulling out of Bakhmut and handing over control to the Russian military.

Yevgeny Prigozhin, Wagner's millionaire owner with long-time links to Russian President Vladimir Putin, said in a video published on Telegram that the handover would be completed by June 1. There was no immediate comment from the Russian defence ministry.

Ukraine's deputy defence minister said on Thursday that Wagner units had been replaced with regular troops in the suburbs but Wagner fighters remained inside the city. Ukrainian forces still have a foothold in the southwestern outskirts, Deputy Minister of Defence Hanna Maliar said.

According to top Ukrainian presidential advisor Mykhailo Podolyak, that counteroffensive is already underway. He said on Thursday that it should not be anticipated as a "single event" starting "at a specific hour of a specific day."

Writing on Twitter, Podolyak said that "dozens of different actions to destroy Russian occupation forces" had "already been taking place yesterday, are taking place today and will continue tomorrow."

Meanwhile, Russia unleashed a barrage of Iranian-made Shahed 36 drones against Kyiv in its 12th nighttime air assault on the Ukrainian capital this month but the city's air defences shot down all of them, Ukrainian authorities said on Thursday. AP

Florida Governor Ron DeSantis | AP

In rivalry with Don, DeSantis launches GOP prez campaign

WASHINGTON

FLORIDA Gov. Ron DeSantis launched his 2024 presidential campaign on Wednesday with firm words but a disastrous Twitter announcement that did little to counter criticism that the 44-year-old Republican may not be ready to take on former President Donald Trump.

While he tried to project confidence, DeSantis' unusual decision to announce his campaign in an online conversation with Twitter CEO Elon Musk ultimately backfired. The audio stream crashed repeatedly, making it virtually impossible for most users to hear the new presidential candidate in real time.

"American decline is not inevitable—it is a choice. And we should choose a new direction—a path that will lead to American revitalisation," DeSantis said on the glitchy stream, racing through his conservative accomplishments. "I am running for president of the United States to lead our great American comeback."

While his critics in both parties delighted in the rocky start, DeSantis' announcement marks a new chapter in his extraordinary rise from little-known congressman to two-term governor to a leading figure in the nation's bitter fights over race, gender, abortion and other divisive issues. AP

Iran unveils new ballistic missile amid tensions with West over N-programme

TEHRAN

IRAN'S defence ministry on Thursday unveiled a new ballistic missile with a range of 2,000 kilometres and a capacity to carry warheads weighing over a tone amid wider tensions with the West over its nuclear programme.

The Kheibar missile — the latest version of the Khorramshahr which is Iran's longest-range missile to date — was unveiled alongside a replica of the Al-Aqsa mosque in east Jerusalem, in a live broadcast on state television.

Iran's Defence Minister Mohammad-Reza Ashtiani said the missile was unveiled as part of moves to "provide comprehensive support to our friends and countries that are on the path of fighting against the domination system."

State news agency IRNA said the Kheibar is "a liquid fuel missile with a range of 2,000 kilometres and a 1,500 kilogrammes warhead."

Its name references the ancient town of Khaybar in Saudi Arabia known for a decisive seventh-century battle in which Prophet Mohammed defeated thousands of Jews.

According to state media, the speed of the high-mobility tactical missile "can reach Mach 16 outside the atmosphere and Mach 8 inside the atmosphere." The unveiling comes amid heightened tensions in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and just over 10 days into a fragile Gaza ceasefire that ended five days of cross border conflict between Israel and the Iran-backed Palestinian militant group Islamic Jihad.

A miniature example of Jerusalem's golden Dome of the Rock on the Al-Aqsa Mosque compound, a holy site in both Islam and Judaism that Jews call the Temple Mount, stood next to the launcher. Agencies

China to hold talks with US amid disputes over technology

BEIJING

CHINA'S commerce minister will hold talks with officials in the US this week amid sharpening disputes over tariffs and technology, his ministry said on Thursday.

Wang Wentao will meet with Commerce Secretary Gina Raimondo and Trade Representative Katherine Tai while in the US on Thursday and Friday in Detroit, Michigan.

In announcing Wang's visit, Commerce Ministry spokesperson Shu Jueting denounced a decision by Japan, a fellow APEC member, to join the US and Holland in barring Chinese access to leading-edge computer chip technology.

"This is the abuse of export measures and the departure from free trade and international economic and trade rules," Shu said. "This will severely damage the interests of Chinese and Japanese enterprises and the trade cooperation between China and Japan." AP

GO FIRST ASKED TO SUBMIT REVIVAL PLAN IN 30 DAYS

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

CONTRARY to earlier expectations that Go First would resume operations by the end of May, it appears now that the cash-strapped airline will take at least a month, if not longer, to start flying again.

This delay comes as aviation regulator Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) on Thursday gave a month's time to the airline to submit a restructuring or revival plan for resuming operations.

The low-cost carrier has been asked to furnish the status of availability of the operational aircraft fleet, pilots and other personnel, maintenance arrangements, funding and working capital, and arrangements with lessors and vendors, among other details. The revival plan, once submitted by Go First, would be reviewed by the DGCA for further appropriate action.

Go First stopped flying on May 3, a day after it filed for bankruptcy. A severe financial crisis due to non-supply of engines by Pratt & Whitney (P&W) led to the grounding of about half of its fleet, forcing them to take this extreme step, the airline had told. As per the latest update on the company's website, Go First flights scheduled till May 28, 2023, have been cancelled. Go First recently submitted its response to the show cause notice issued by the aviation regulator on May 8. In its reply, the airline requested to allow it to use the moratorium period to prepare a restructuring plan for restarting operations and present the same to the regulator for approvals before restarting operations.

Earlier, DGCA had said it will conduct an audit of Go First's readiness to resume operations before giving green signal. Go First had told DGCA it hopes to resume operations at the "earliest" but didn't give any tentative date by when it plans to do so and with what scale. Aviation minister Jyotiraditya Scindia on Wednesday said they are yet to hear from the airline when they would resume operations. Meanwhile, a judge of the Delhi high court on Thursday recused herself from hearing a batch of pleas by aircraft lessors of Go First seeking directions to the authorities to release their planes leased to the crisis-hit airline.

Angel tax: S'pore, Mauritius not in exempted list

Government identifies 21 countries, from which investments in domestic start-ups will not attract this tax

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

IN a surprise move, the tax department has excluded Singapore, Mauritius, Netherlands and Luxembourg from the list of countries exempted from the stricter Angel Tax rules implemented recently. These countries are the biggest contributors to foreign direct investments (FDI) in India.

In a notification issued late on Wednesday, the government identified 21 countries, investments from which will be exempted from the recent change in tax rules, bringing investments from overseas jurisdiction under the Angel Tax. The countries on the exempted list are Australia, Austria, Belgium, Canada, Czech Republic, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Iceland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Korea, New Zealand, Norway, Spain, Sweden, the UK, the US and Russia.

The latest notification means any investments from these countries (excluded countries) will attract angel tax. Saurrav Sood- Practice Leader-International Tax and Transfer pricing at SW India says this seems to be a deliberate miss in spite of the fact that many investments come from these jurisdictions through SPVs (special purpose vehicles), which invest indirectly into Indian start-ups.

Anil Joshi, Managing Partner, Unicorn India Ventures, said countries such as Singapore, Mauritius and Netherlands have been missed and this will certainly impact investments from these countries. "We believe that the government should take industry views on this and take steps to include these countries in the exempt list," Joshi said.

Apart from the US, Mauritius and Singapore are top sources of FDI inflow to India. According to government data, Mauritius, Singapore, Netherland contribute 25.9%, 23% and 6.9% of total equity inflow to India from April 2000 to December 2022. The CBDT also excluded entities registered with SEBI as Category-I FPI, endowment funds, pension funds created and broad-based Pooled Investment Vehicle or fund where the number of investors in such vehicle or fund is more than 50.

Sood also said such a condition of 50 investors is somewhat misaligned with Section 9A provisions which provide safe harbour benefits with 25 investors as a condition there in. "While this notification has been a welcome relief to investors, it will have to be seen whether it meets the end fairly or is a goal half achieved," he added.

Last week, the CBDT exempted many foreign and Indian entities from the purview of angel tax. To account for forex fluctuations, bidding processes and variations in other economic indicators, it also proposed to provide a safe harbour of 10 % variation in value.

START-UP INVESTMENTS

Investments from Australia, Canada, France, UK and US, among other 16 countries in Indian start-ups exempted from angel tax

Introduced in 2012, it is the tax that unlisted firms are liable to pay on the capital they raise via issue of shares

Investments from govt-related investors including sovereign funds, banks and specified countries (21) are not subject to angel tax provisions

In its previous notification, CBDT had proposed to provide a safe harbour of 10 % variation in value

CBDT notification comes into effect on April 1 , 2023

Leave encashment up to ₹25L tax free

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

THE government has notified an increase in the tax exemption limit for leave encashment benefits received by non-government employees at the time of retirement from ₹3 lakh to ₹25 lakh, as promised in the Union Budget.

This comes into effect from April 1. "The aggregate amount exempt under section 10(10AA) (ii) of the (Income tax) act shall not exceed the limit of ₹25 lakh where any such payments are received by a non-government employee from more than one employer in the same previous year," the I-T department notification said.

Taxation on leave encashment, compensation against unutilised paid leaves, depends on the time when it is received. Usually, if it is availed while on job, the mount received is taxable. However, if availed on retirement, it is fully exempt for central and state government employees and partially exempted for non-government employees up to a limit of ₹25 lakh. In her budget speech, Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman in February this year proposed the increase in the tax exemption on leave encashment on retirement. "The limit of ₹3 lakh for tax exemption on leave encashment on retirement of non-gover ment salaried employees was last fixed in 2002, when the highest basic pay in the government was ₹30,000 per month. In line with the increase in government salaries, I am proposing to increase this limit to ₹25 lakh," she said in her budget speech.

OLA ELECTRIC, country's largest electric two-wheeler seller, is said to be in talks with financial institutions to make its market debut by launching what can be one of the largest initial public offerings (IPOs) of recent times.

According to reports, the Softbank-backed company is eying to hit the public market early 2024.

The company is believed to be in talks with Kotak, Goldman Sachs and other financial firms as banking partners for the IPO. Some reports suggest that Ola Electric may eye a prelisting valuation of as high as $10 billion and would raise around $1 billion through the IPO. The initial offering is expected to be a mix of fresh issue of shares as well as offer-of-sale by existing investors.

It increased interest to go public comes as the firm is reported to have raised $300 million in a latest funding round at a valuation of $6 billion. While the electric vehicle maker hasn't disclosed this funding, it was last valued at $5billion in 2022 when it had raised $200 million from Tekne Private Ventures, Alpine Opportunity Fund, and Edelweiss among others.

Ola Electric continues to lead the electric two-wheeler market. As per Vahan data, its vehicle registrations stood highest among EV makers at 21,957 units. Going forward, the company has aggressive expansion plans, both in terms of new launches and capacity expansion. Bhavish Aggarwal, founder and CEO had said that Ola Electric was expecting its two-wheeler EV business to turn profitable in 2023. The company had previously said that it plans to launch more electric two-wheeler models in 2023 and 2024, including a mass market scooter and a mass market motorcycle.

LIC losing ground to private life insurers as competition gets fierce

SACHIN KUMAR @New Delhi

LIFE INSURANCE CORPORATION OF INDIA (LIC), country's largest insurer, is losing ground to private insurers as the competition gets fierce in the life insurance sector.

The share of the insurer has dwindled over the past a few years while private sector insurers have captured more customers. LIC's share in the first-year premium has fallen to 62.6% in the financial year 2022-2023 (FY23) from 66.2% in FY 21. The loss of LIC has been gain of 22 private life insurers as their share in the first year-premium has risen from 33.8% in FY21 to 37.4% in the previous fiscal.

"When it comes to distribution, private insurers have advantage of having banks as their distribution partners to market their products and several private life insurers have banks as their promoter, which works in their favour," said Saurabh Bhalerao, Associate Director – BFSI Research, Care Ratings.

Emails sent to LIC to provide comments for the story remain unanswered. The first-year premium income of the insurance industry was at ₹3.7 lakh crore at the end of March, in which LIC's share was ₹2.3 lakh crore while share of 22 private insurers was ₹1.38 lakh crore. Experts believe LIC's product mix is tilted towards traditional plans with lower sum assured amount. The insurance giant is catering to the customers in semi-urban and rural areas where the policies with lower premium are more in demand. Whereas, private insurers focus on urban areas targeting high income customers.

"Private insurers have adopted a more proactive approach to marketing and distributing their products compared to LIC. They have leveraged various channels, including digital marketing, to reach a wider audience and increase brand visibility," said Yagnesh Dosshi, co-founder & director, Raghnall Insurance Broking and Risk Management.

'Energy security at risk because of geopolitical pressure, climate change'

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

ENERGY security is coming under a lot of pressure because of geopolitical pressure and climate change, chief economic advisor (CEA) of India, V Anantha Nageswaran said Thursday. Energy security is the single biggest threat for India to sustain the growth rate which it has attained over the past 2-3 years.

"There is a lot of emphasis from the developed world on emissions mitigation. No doubt, it is important and no doubt, there is global warming. No doubt, it means addressing. But it is equally important for developing country there is adequate and affordable energy for powering economic growth," Nageswaran said.

"We need to adapt to the effects of the carbon dioxide in the atmosphere. When we are talking about climate change, therefore, we need to provide financing for adaptation and resilience and not just emission mitigation alone. Financiers need to take into account that we completely swear off fossil fuel. We need to balance the proportion of non-fossil fuels and fossil fuels in our energy mix in terms of installed capacity by the year 2030," he said.

He further added that if the financial industry completely avoids funding fossil fuel-based projects, then we will be placing the Indian economy in jeopardy. "It's wrong to assume that focusing on economic prosperity is inconsistent with the focus on climate change management. Prosperity is a prerequisite for addressing climate change in the medium term," he added. In addition, he also stated that the country is seeing the signs of corporate sector beginning to make investment and based on the data available in the first six months of the last three years, in FY21 it was ₹2.1 lakh crore, in FY22 it was ₹2.7 lakh crore and in FY23 it was ₹3.3 lakh crore.

"Capacity utilization in some sectors like steel and cement has reached a point where green investment has to happen. It is unfolding at a steady rate which is good enough for us," CEA added.

Meanwhile, Debasish Panda, Chairman, Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (IRDAI) who was also present at the meeting said, the regulator has sent some proposals to the Centre for amendment in the Insurance Act to facilitate entry of new small players in the sector.

Indian telecom sector will remain most affordable in the world: Ashwini Vaishnaw

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

WITH concerns being raised about the different threats AI pose for jobs and otherwise, telecom minister Ashwini Vaishnaw in an interaction with this newspaper said the Digital India Act will regulate artificial intelligence (AI) and Quantum technology. He spoke on an array of issues. Edited excerpts:

You have said the US has shown keen interest in our 5G or 4G stack. Which other countries want to deploy our technology?
I should not take names, but let me tell you many countries have shown interest in our 5G and 4G stack. If we talk about numbers, it is almost 20 countries keen on deploying 5G networks.

Are we going to have another 5G auction? And what is happening in the satellite spectrum auction.
I don't think there is a requirement for a 5G spectrum auction now for telecom companies. For satellite spectrum, the issue will be resolved soon and an auction may happen this year.

Digital India Act will regulate AI and Quantum technology. AI will be regulated in a novel manner. We are discussing it with all stakeholders to create a safe internet. Primary focus is to make sure that the users are protected

What is new development on the semiconductor front and can you share any details on Vedanta and Foxconn plan to start a Fab?
It is going well and soon we will have a major announcement on the semiconductor sector.

Will the upcoming Digital India Act have provision for regulating new technology such as AI?
The Digital India Act will regulate AI and Quantum technology. AI will be regulated in a novel manner. We are discussing it with all stakeholders including industry, academia to create a safe internet. Moreover, we will keep one enabling provision in the Digital India Act, so that we can create a framework, in which if new technology comes, which we don't know currently, can be regulated. Those things can be properly covered. The primary focus of governance is to make sure that the users are protected. In the sector, we did some reforms to help cut cyber attacks. Same is the case with the data protection bill.

What is happening in Vodafone Idea, aren't you concerned they are not investing?
Yes, we are encouraging them to invest. We are concerned because investment is supposed to come and once it comes the firm will work properly.

The telcos are filing complaints against each other for predatory pricing. What is your take on it?
I think the prices that we have in India are viable prices. I think we are the most affordable telecom sector in the world, and we will continue to stay most affordable.

There were so many hues and cries over government appointed fact-checkers as per a recent amendment to IT Rules 2021. What is your take on it?
If it is a government-related matter who can tell you whether it is true or false? of course, the government. It is a large society, and there will be many different views. But if you have to look at a fact, then a fact is a fact, one can't have two views on a fact. The aim of it is to make sure correct facts are placed.

The last time Shubman Gill faced Akash Madhwal, the stumps went cartwheeling with the Mumbai pacer having the last laugh. Madhwal will be coming into the game on the back of a match-winning figures (5/5) in the eliminator. Can Gill make a statement against him and Mumbai this time around?

WHAT'S UP WITH PANDYA?

At this point, it is clear that Hardik Pandya wants to bat at No. 3 for GT, but his approach on occasions has been similar to that off KL Rahul's. Pandya seemed to have course corrected after miscalculating during a chase earlier, but since then he has not done much with the bat and hasn't bowled in four games now. What can we expect from him on Friday?

THE OTHER INDIANS OF MUMBAI

Backed by the scouting department, another group of uncapped players have lifted the side

GOMESH S @ Chennai

WHEN Mumbai Indians came out of the 2023 IPL auction in December last year, one thing was clear. They had their share of work cut out in the bowling department despite having Jasprit Bumrah and Jofra Archer in the squad. For starters, Bumrah was not going to be available. With Archer, there was uncertainity, considering England were set to play the Ashes after the IPL (he would play only five games before being ruled out for the rest of the English summer). Their spin attack wasn't a star-studded one either — Piyush Chawla and Kumar Kartikeya — and yet, they are one win away from making their seventh IPL final.

Overseas stars apart, the key performers for them this season? A certain 29-year-old Akash Madhwal, who was playing only tennis ball cricket in Uttarakhand until a few years ago, 22-year-old Nehal Wadhera from Punjab, 20-year-old Tilak Varma from Hyderabad, a 20-year-old Hrithik Shokeen from Delhi and Chawla. The total amount of money the franchise spent on them to secure their services — ₹2.8 crore, with Varma being the highest of all (₹1.7 crore).

From Aakash Madhwal (left) to Hrithik Shokeen, Mumbai Indians' strength in scouting has come to fore this year as well | SPORTZPICS

While Chawla needs no introduction, the triumph of the rest tells why MI are the most successful franchise in the league. To be honest, it is pretty simple. A strong scouting system followed by investing and managing the growth of the players. Madhwal was a net bowler with RCB in 2019 and MI later on. In 2022, when Suryakumar Yadav got injured, they signed him and retained him in 2023. While he had to wait for his opportunity, Madhwal wasn't just sitting in the dugout and carrying drinks.

"When the scouting team picks you as a net bowler, they also give you chances in practice matches, where you have to perform. The team is watching you. You are staying with the team, so they take care too. When you get a chance, you need to grab that chance. They had taken me for the last two matches last year when Surya had an injury. I had a clear message that they won't be looking at me last year. They had said I am doing well and that I will be in with a chance next year," said Madhwal after taking 5/5 against Lucknow Super Giants in the Eliminator.

Same is the case with Varma and Wadhera, who are among the top run-scorers for the team this season. Infact, their captain Rohit Sharma made it clear that the credit has to go the strong scouting team that goes around the country and watches matches to find such talents. Sharma is not wrong in saying so. Several top players/captains from the ten franchises this year have all been a part of MI in their earliest years of IPL. SKY, Jasprit Bumrah, Nitish Rana, Axar Patel, Krunal Pandya, Hardik Pandya, Rahul Chahar, Glenn Maxwell, Kuldeep Yadav, Yuzvendra Chahal, Mayank Markande... the list goes on.

Which is why, when Sharma says that MI is a superstar team because the franchise has worked for it, you will have to agree with him. "We have worked hard for it. It was a five-year journey from 2015-2020. It is going to be the same story with what has happened with Bumrah, Hardik and all these guys. Varma and Wadhera... you watch the next two years. But then people will say 'it is a superstar team'. Yes it is, we are making them here. These two guys are going to be huge stars for us and for India," Sharma had said in a chat with Robin Uthappa on Jio Cinema.

It took MI five years to win their first title. However, in the next seven years, they ended up winning four. Will Mumbai Indians win this time around? Even if they don't, one shouldn't be surprised if they win a few in the coming years with another set of superstars taking centrestage.

Call on Asia Cup to be made after IPL finale

ENS @ Chennai

THE BCCI secretary and Asian Cricket Council president Jay Shah said that he will discussing the future course of action regarding the 2023 Asia Cup with the dignitaries from Bangladesh, Sri Lanka and Afghanistan, who are invited for the 2023 IPL final in Ahmedabad, on Sunday.

"The respective presidents of the Bangladesh, Afghanistan and Sri Lanka Cricket Boards will grace the Tata IPL 2023 final to be held on May 28 at the Narendra Modi Stadium. We will hold discussions with them for outlining the future course of action in relation to Asia Cup 2023," Shah said on Thursday.

The Asia Cup was originally scheduled to be hosted by Pakistan. However, since the Indian cricket team is not willing to travel to Pakistan without the permission from the central government, there were reports that the event might be be moved to Sri Lanka considering the ODI World Cup will be played in India.

Pakistan Cricket Board chairman Najam Sethi had proposed a hybrid model where the first five-six featuring other teams to be played in the country before moving to a different nation to play the India games and the rest of the tournament.

While there were reports that Sri Lanka and Bangladesh were not happy with the proposals, and so were the broadcasters, the final call on the matter is likely to be taken after the IPL final.

GT confident of good show

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @ Chennai

IPL table-toppers Gujarat Titans are a disappointed lot having lost the Qualifier I to Chennai Super Kings by 15 runs at Chepauk on Tuesday. More than the loss, the manner of the defeat which saw three run-outs is what rankles them.

However, they are determined and eager to do well against Mumbai Indians in Qualifier II on Friday at Ahmedabad and make it to the final for the second time on a trot. ''I think we were quite spot-on (with the ball), but we made basic errors and that cost us the game. With the kind of bowlers we had, I felt we conceded 15 extra runs. A lot of things we did right. We bowled a couple of loose balls in between. We were executing our plans and then in between we gave some runs. I don't think we need to look much into it. Just focus on the things that we've done really well this season,'' said Hardik Pandya after the loss to CSK.

Gujarat Titans assistant coach Aashish Kapoor echoes similar sentiments but insists that his team was not bad as the result may suggest. His confidence stems from the fact that Gujarat had a good bowling attack and batting depth till No 8. ''We are the table toppers and not that bad a side that the results may show. It was one of those days when things did not go as per plan. But we are confident of doing well against Mumbai,'' Kapoor told this daily from Ahmedabad.

Gujarat Titans assistant coach Aashish Kapoor

Adding further, Kapoor, who was part of the 1996 World Cup team, said, ''The boys know that as a team we have the potential to beat any team on a given day. It all boils down to how we execute our plans.''.

Mumbai rely heavily on its top order comprising the likes of Rohit Sharma, Ishan Kishan and Suryakumar Yadav to deliver so will the Gujarat bowlers target them. ''You see we don't plan for just two or three players. In this format, anyone can score on a given day. We analyse as a whole and see what their strengths and weaknesses are. Have a look at the conditions and then decide our strategy,'' explained Kapoor.

Kapoor was all praise for skipper Hardik. ''Hardik thinks as a group and talks to everyone. He is learning as captain, he is learning a lot, he has got no egos and is ready to learn. That willingness to learn is his plus point. He has led India and is leading Gujarat by example. He will do well as a captain in the future.''

With spinners calling the shots in crunch games in the IPL so far, the Gujarat spin duo of Rashid Khan and Noor Ahmad will have a big role to play. In fact, Kapoor had described Noor as a left-handed version of Rashid Khan during the last IPL auction. ''Both (Rashid, Noor) are quality spinners and can bowl well against anyone. We also have a strong batting lineup, and I expect a good show by our team,'' said 52-year-old Kapoor.

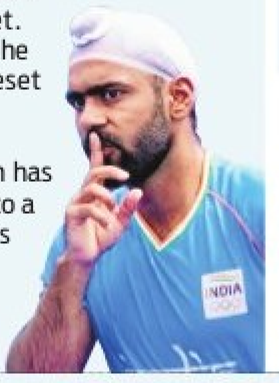
With the men's hockey team playing their first competitive match under a new regime on Friday, a look at some of the possible talking points...

RETURN OF SIMRANJEET

At the Olympics, Simranjeet Singh was the difference maker in attack. Quite literally, with his brace over Germany helping India to a bronze. Even otherwise, his running down the channel, linking play and pressing made him an asset. Since then, he has been beset by injuries. New coach Craig Fulton has gone back to a player who's finally free of injury trouble.



START OF A BIG YEAR

CULMINATING WITH THE OLYMPICS

India's two big assignments for 2023 — Asian Champions Trophy and Asian Games — is in tournaments where they will begin favourites. The next set of Pro League games offers the South African and his army of support staff an ideal snapshot into the kind of players he has at his disposal.

DEFEND TO WIN ATTITUDE

In his first press conference after being appointed, Fulton had admitted that he was the sort of coach who would want to bring in a defend to win attitude while keeping India's DNA of fast, attacking hockey. Considering their games will be against some of the best nations, it will give a look into whether he has already drilled some discipline into the team's mental make-up.

PENALTY CORNER TAKERS

At the World Cup, the team's dead ball specialists fluffed their lines repeatedly. Harmanpreet Singh, one of the best from the top of the D, couldn't find the target. Likewise some of the others. Can they rediscover from their mojo?

FRENCH OPEN

Djokovic & Alcaraz in same half of draw

AFP @ Paris

Novak Djokovic

Carlos Alcaraz

NOVAK Djokovic could face World No 1 Carlos Alcaraz in the semifinals of the French Open after both players were placed in the same half of the draw on Thursday.

Djokovic is chasing a record 23rd men's Grand Slam title in the absence of the injured Rafael Nadal, who will miss the tournament at Roland Garros for the first time since his 2005 title-winning debut.

The third-seeded Djokovic, Roland Garros champion in 2016 and 2021, meets 114th-ranked Aleksandar Kovacevic of the US in the first round in Paris — the first French Open since 1998 without Nadal or the now retired Roger Federer. The 24-year-old Kovacevic is making his Grand Slam main draw debut. Djokovic, who turned 36 on Monday, has been bothered by a recurrence of a right elbow injury which has disrupted his clay-court season. He failed to go beyond the last eight at any of the three events he played on clay this spring, losing his number one spot to Alcaraz.

Djokovic has also fallen behind Daniil Medvedev in the rankings after the Russian succeeded him as Italian Open champion last weekend.

US Open champion Alcaraz and Medvedev both start their Roland Garros campaigns against a qualifier or lucky loser. Alcaraz is also on track to play 2021 French Open runner-up Stefanos Tsitsipas in the quarterfinals.

Reigning women's champion Iga Swiatek begins her title defence against Spain's Cristina Bucsa, the World No 67 who was beaten by the Pole in the third round of this year's Australian Open. The top-ranked Swiatek, bidding to become the first back-to-back women's champion at the French Open in 16 years, is coming off a thigh injury which forced her to retire in Rome. She is seeded to meet 2022 runner-up Coco Gauff in the quarterfinals and could face Wimbledon champion Elena Rybakina, last week's Italian Open winner, in the last four. "This is my favourite tournament. I always get this extra motivation to practise harder here. I'm really excited to be here," Swiatek said during the draw ceremony.

Aryna Sabalenka, who won her maiden Grand Slam crown in Melbourne, plays Marta Kostyuk of Ukraine in round one. Sabalenka has never got beyond the third round in Paris despite making at least the semi-finals at all of the other three majors.

Real's Rodrygo raises fist in Vinicius tribute

AGENCIES @ Barcelona

RODRYGO struck a late winner for Real Madrid in a 2-1 La Liga victory over Rayo Vallecano on Wednesday and raised his fist into the air in a nod to teammate Vinicius Junior.

Brazilian winger Vinicius received racist abuse against Valencia on Sunday, but was watching on from the president's box because of a knee problem. Rodrygo struck in the 89th minute to send Madrid second and bowed his head while lifting his fist in a "Black Power" salute. Karim Benzema sent Madrid into the lead in the first half before Raul de Tomas equalised for the visitors at the Santiago Bernabeu, with Rodrygo deciding the game in the final stages.

The win sent Real Madrid second, a point above rivals Atletico Madrid, who drew 3-3 at Getafe later on Wednesday.
